OrganXtravaganza

Thanks to those who volunteered their time yesterday to assist with the "Pulling Out the Stops" day. It was a busy day with many keen young people taking advantage of the occasion to 'have a go' playing the organ.

The Minister of Arts, Heritage & Culture attended the official launch of the organ fundraising event last night.

And this afternoon, budding organists (along with more the experienced) will present a concert 3.00 pm.

Bishop's Chaplains New Roles, New Titles

At the farewell to Regional Ministry Convenors Jack Papuni (Eastland) and Eric Fairbrother (Central and Southern Hawke's Bay) on Wednesday 24th March, Bishop David announced a role change and subsequent new title for the two remaining RMC's, Noel Hendery and Adrienne Bruce. They will become the Bishop's Chaplains. The choice of this new name follows discussions around the diocese. Whilst this role of Chaplain is diocesan, Adrienne's primary focus will be the Bay of Plenty and Eastland, and Noel's will be Hawke's Bay. Bishop David describes this role as an extension of his Episcopal ministry. In practical terms, this means that Bishop David will expect Noel and Adrienne to normally be the first point of contact for ministry matters in their respective regions. They will also continue to provide support and oversight for the LSM parishes.

Appointment of the Hawke's Bay Regional Youth Facilitator

Congratulations to Sandi Hall (Taradale Parish). Her contact details are sandrajhall@xtra.co.nz or phone 0274080409.
