The Story behind the Picture

In the mid-1990's the Cathedral Parish sponsored a refugee family from Cambodia to Napier. At that time there were already a number of Cambodian/Laotian families living here. The Cathedral Parish's family were Oun and Toy Nirakone and their two small daughters, the youngest of whom had been born in the refugee camp in Cambodia. A group of parishioners, including Stan and Sue Cosham, set about welcoming the family to Napier and helping them to settle in. Stan's role was to teach Oun English, and Sue's was to teach Toy. A job was found for Oun at Firth Concrete, not one he particularly enjoyed, as he was a graphic artist in his own country! In time, he applied to the EIT as an art teacher, but sadly his English was still not good enough for a teaching position. Meanwhile the Cathedral had purchased art materials for him so that he could do some painting in his spare time. These were displayed in a coffee shop in Emerson Street and were for sale. To thank Stan and Sue for their help to the family, Oun gave them a painting which they treasured. It is very restful, painted from memory of the country he left behind and loved. It is now on display in the Baptistry.

Sue is now offering the painting to be auctioned in the Parish, the funds to go towards the Organ Restoration. A reserve of $150 has been set. Please place your name and contact details and your bid on the clip board.

Bids close on the 27th February 2011.

Clergy House, McDonald Street

The Cathedral Parish owns a house in McDonald Street which has, in the past, been the home of the curate or second clergy person in the parish. Since the Rev'd Jan Tarrant's departure, the house has been rented. In December, Vestry and Standing Committee (of the Diocese) decided to sell the house. The capital will be used for some major work needed at the Deanery on the slumping driveway and garage, and to repay the Diocese for the loan still outstanding for the demolition of the hall. Remaining capital will be invested along with our other investments managed by the Waiapu Board of Diocesan Trustees.

ART DECO WEEK

Napier city, and the Cathedral, along with the wider district, gear up to celebrate all things Art Deco next week.

Sunday 20 February is Art Deco day in the Cathedral. At 10.00 am, the Choral Eucharist is sung to Bill Bennett's Jazz setting; and at 5.00 pm, the "Swing and a Prayer" service is with the Royal New Zealand Navy Band, and members of the HB Youth Theatre, presenting the "Shopkeepers' Story". Please note the earlier time than in previous years - doors open at 4.00 pm. This is a free event, however a donation at the door is appreciated.

Bishop David Rice presides at both services in the Cathedral next Sunday, and participates in the ringing of the Veronica Bell ceremony at the Sound-shell at 12.30 pm.

And don't forget the Will Martin Concert in the Cathedral, Wednesday 16 February at 8.00 pm - tickets $28.00 from the Art Deco Trust Shop, Tennyson Street.

The CATHEDRAL SHOP has a great selection of wonderful things for sale - cards, books and much more. EFTPOS available! See Helen Blow or a Cathedral guide for purchase assistance.

TALES FROM THE OP SHOP

The shop started the new year with plenty of new summer stock - thanks for everyone for your donations. It seems that wardrobes have been sorted and winter clothing is filling the store room ready for the cooler weather.

The next few weeks focus on Art Deco. The window is appropriately dressed by Mary Ditchburn (black and white this week). Grateful thanks to her for her creativity. The shop has a wide range of clothing and accessories which will suit the occasion.

As we are all using less plastic bags at the supermarket, so we receive less in the shop. Anyone who has a store of supermarket bags that we all gather up 'in case we need them' - the shop will be a welcome repository for them.

Lemons are frequently asked for... anyone with more than they can use?

Anyone out there with a couple of spare mornings or afternoons a month would be welcome to help out in the shop. It's a social place with plenty of customers to chat to as they mooch for that something they did not know they wanted. Cruise ship days provide many interesting conversations. Who would have thought that cruise ship passengers are op-shop addicts?

Phone Diane Holmes, Cathedral Op Shop Manager, 835 5603.

ENVIRONMENT JUSTICE & PEACE

The group is circulating several petitions:

- ✂ Save the Napier-Gisborne Rail
- ✂ Mokihinui Dam
- ✂ NZ Not for Sale

They are on the blue clip board on the back table for signing if you wish.
