ST JOHN THE EVANGELIST

The church's tradition that the fourth evangelist was the apostle John cannot be conclusively disproved, but it is safer to deduce what we can about the evangelist from the Gospel itself. The "disciple whom Jesus loved" may have been a witness to certain events of the passion, but is presented as the ideal of oneness with Christ. The actual author of the Gospel seems to represent a Christian community whose Jewish ties have been severed; a community bound together by the reality of Jesus Christ, their whole life constituted and controlled by their believing in him.

Collect:

God our Father,
we praise you for John,
your evangelist,
whose gospel reveals the mystery
of the Word made flesh;
grant that, enlightened by his teaching, we may walk in the way of your truth,
and finally come to the light
of eternal life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

Participants will need to have read the Covenant document (copies available from the back table or download from www.anglicancommunion.org).

Tomorrow, Monday 9 May, at 5.30 Evensong to open the Missions to Seafarers' Pacific Meeting. Delegates will have travelled from across the Pacific for this three day meeting. All welcome to attend the Evensong and assist us in our welcome of the visitors.

VESTRY NEWS

- ◆ Reviewed the budget for the coming year
- ◆ were pleased that we have finished the 2010-11 year in the black but noted with disappointment that income from giving and donations was approx $6000 less than the previous year
- ◆ agreed to explore the possibility of finding external funding for a part time events coordinator position to continue to promote the Cathedral as a venue for events
- ◆ noted that our insurance premiums will rise by at least 15% this year

FURNITURE 'ON LOAN'

The family from Christchurch that we hosted, are now installed in their Housing Corp home in Taradale and taking up their new lives among us. It is time for us to get your loaned furniture back to you.

Please give Richard a list of what you would like returned, and he will negotiate with Conroy Removals to bring it to your address. They carry it for no charge, which is nice, but the flipside of that is that we cannot command the time at which they do it. We need to plan for that.

Whatever is left in the house when everything has been claimed, will go to the Salvation Army.

On behalf of everyone involved in this project, please accept our thanks for your support of this project.

Grace and peace - Richard Spence

ORDINATIONS

Suva's Holy Trinity Cathedral played host last Sunday to the largest ordination service ever held in the Diocese of Polynesia. Fifteen candidates to Holy Orders were ordained – six to the diaconate, and nine to the priesthood.

The new priests included Brenda Reid Sio of Samoa, who became the first Pacific woman ordained to the priesthood in the Pacific. And the deacons included Feteleni Havea, who is pioneering a congregation of Tongan Anglicans in Christchurch. They meet once a month at St Barnabas Fendalton.

See the Anglican Taonga web-site for photos. www.anglicantaonga.org.nz/

The Cathedral clergy attended the HB Regional clergy day with the Bishop last Friday, and heard about progress with parishes in Christchurch, and how/when we might help; also with HB rural areas.
