GENERAL SYNOD

Delegates from the three tikanga and every Diocese and Hui Amorangi of this Province have been meeting in Fiji this past week discussing many, and varied, motions. As expected, General Synod said a final: 'No' to the proposed Anglican covenant. But the original motion was amended to stress this church's desire to remain tightly knit with the Communion.

The Curtain Bank – Volunteers Needed

The Curtain Bank provides re-cycled curtains to people who have a health or disability condition, to keep them warm and cosy in winter. In the last month, 238 curtains were provided to 26 homes. The Curtain Bank won the 2011 Environmental Action Award sponsored by Hawke's Bay City and Regional Councils. The Curtain Bank is supported by Energy Options Charitable Trust and is reliant on volunteers to provide this much needed service. At present there are only two volunteers, and they need more. If you can straight sew, unpick, measure, cut or mend, your skills are needed - please phone Janice or Jill on 8439060 between 9.30am and 12.00pm on a Tuesday or Thursday (when the curtain bank is open). Donations of quality used curtains for re-cycling would also be greatly appreciated.

The Napier Community Foodbank is currently short of soap, jams, pasta sauce, canned fish, flour and sugar. Thank you for your continued support.

God's Never-Ending-Story

A winter study group (for six sessions) commencing Sunday 5 August, 4.30-6.00 pm, in the upstairs Choir Room. Contact Murray Mills, ph 835-0884.
