Alt sørge med Norge All mourn with Norway

The Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr Rowan Williams, has sent his prayers and sympathy to the people of Norway following the tragic events in Oslo and Utøya last Friday.

His message follows:

"Along with all the faithful of the Church of England, I want to express my deepest sympathy with the people of Norway in the wake of the appalling events of recent days. Norway has played so great a part over many years in international reconciliation as well as developing its own distinctive national ethos of openness and fairness, and it is a special tragedy that it should suffer this outbreak of senseless carnage. Our prayers are with all those who died and all those who mourn them; and we are grateful for the many signs of strength and spiritual maturity that the Norwegian people have shown in their response to evil and destructiveness."

The Church of England and the Church of Norway are united in communion through the Porvoo Agreement (1996).

Copies of comment from the NZ Anglican Taonga web-site, and the Litany of Prayers prepared by the World Council of Churches, are available on the back table in the Cathedral.

FOR YOUR PRAYERS ... please continue to uphold parishioners and those known to us who are unwell, and their families supporting them; particularly the West family as they deal with Fiona's illness; the Reeves family; and the family of Joyce Johnson whose funeral will be held at Ormond Chapel on Friday.

ENVIRONMENT-JUSTICE-PEACE

The Cathedral-based EJP Network meets at 3.00 pm next Sunday 7 August in the Parish Lounge.

Reflections will focus on Peace (6 August is Hiroshima's anniversary).

EJP has initiated three motions to go to this year's Diocesan Synod in September - on Violence, Poverty, and Interfaith Understanding - all relevant to recent news events.

Sir Paul Reeves, a former archbishop of this church, and Bishop of Waiapu from 1971 to 1979, is stepping back from most aspects of public life following a diagnosis of cancer. This will allow him to focus on his health issues and to spend more time with Lady Reeves and his family. Sir Paul asks for privacy for himself and his family.

Sir Paul, who was born in 1932, was Archbishop and Primate of New Zealand from 1980-85, and the fifteenth Governor-General of New Zealand from November 1985 to November 1990.

He is the current Chancellor of the Auckland University of Technology. He will continue in this role in the meantime, though reduce involvement over time.

Association of Anglican Women Afternoon and Evening Fellowship Groups

The Cathedral Parish AAW groups combine for their next meeting to hear guest speaker, Elizabeth Crawley (NZ AAW President), in the Parish Lounge on Wednesday 3 August, 2.00 pm.

All welcome.

Contact: Elisabeth, ph 835-4609

The Taradale branch of AAW meet on Thursday 4 August, 7.30 pm in the All Saints' Church lounge, 23 Puketapu Road, Taradale, for an evening with Charity Norman (Cathedral parishioner and best-selling author). All welcome.
Contact: Doreen, ph 844-5608.

WAIAPU TEAM ARRIVE IN CHRISTCHURCH ... eventually!

The worst winter snow storms in years caused havoc to the plans of the Waiapu Children's Ministry team! They were delayed in various parts of the country on their way to Christchurch, however all team members did eventually arrive safely, but Tuesday's sessions had to be cancelled. Wednesday's session at Woolston went ahead with 17 children braving the still icy and dangerous conditions to enjoy a fun-filled day. The rest of the week's sessions went as planned at Aranui, Burwood, and Linwood.

ROSTERS - please contact Jennifer (ph.845-1108) or the Parish Office to advise any dates in September-October-November when you are not available for rostered duties. Thanks.

Book of Books lecture series flyers on the back table - take one to use as a book-mark to remind you of the dates, or to use as an invitation to give to someone who may be interested in attending.

CATHEDRAL PARISH CELEBRATES 150 years - 2-4 March 2012

It has just come to our attention that the first service of the parish in the first little wooden church of St John was held on Sunday 2 March 1862; which makes next year our 150th anniversary!! So we are rapidly forming a task group to plan a celebration. Please speak to Judith Howlett or Marie Knight if you would like to help with the planning. The celebratory dinner will be at Ormlie Lodge on Sunday 4 March 2012.
