A very warm WELCOME to all who are worshipping with us today -- especially if you are visiting Napier or at the Cathedral for the first time.

Today, at the 10am service, we are continuing to experiment with a new way of coming up for communion.

Being aware of those who have difficulty using the stairs to come up for communion, and being aware that most weeks we serve some people separately in the congregation, and wanting to have a sense of all gathering together, we would like to trial a new way.

We will gather along the bottom of the chancel steps - come up the centre aisle and fill in from the far side - by the eagle lectern on the right and the pulpit on the left. Standing is recommended but if you wish to kneel on the bottom step you may. Communion will be served starting at the lectern/ pulpit and moving to the middle. Please leave via the side aisles.

This is very much an experiment which we will try for 8 weeks and then we will seek feedback on whether we feel this is a good idea. Please reserve your judgement for at least a couple of weeks as it will feel awkward to begin with. But be assured we will listen to the feedback as this may or may not work well.

Please be sure to stand close to the curve of the steps.

Today we welcome Mr Gray Ruffell as our guest preacher at the 10.00 am service: Gray is a parishioner of St Peter's, Riverslea, and will be reflecting on being an inclusive church which welcomes all, especially those with disabilities.

On sale today are copies of Gray's book for children: Anna's Story $25

Op Shop - we have received more than 75 formal applications for the Op Shop Manager's position; plus additional general enquiries! A shortlist has been selected and will be interviewed soon.

People News ... We remember those who are unwell, receiving treatment in hospital or at home, or awaiting surgery - we pray for Fiona, Joy, Judy, Judith, Diane, Dorothy, Eileen, Nancye, Isabel, Millie (and the Ronberg family), and Carrie (Taranaki Dean Jamie Allen's daughter).

ORGAN UPDATE

The next fund-raising event is a Musical Instrument Fair, 22-23 September, in the Clive Hall.

PRECIOUS BOOK LOST!

Rev'd Jon Williams is sorely missing his autographed copy of The Gift Endures (a book on the history of the Diocese of Waiapu, published a few years ago). Can you help? Please phone Jon, 8351566, if you have borrowed it or know where it is.

STUDY GROUP

A 'winter' study series commenced with a group of ten last Sunday, and continues this afternoon, 12th August, 4.30pm-6.00 pm in the upstairs Choir room. The group then takes a two-week break (because of the Napier Civic Choir concert, and an Evensong celebration) before meeting again for the final four sessions on the 2nd, 9th, 16th & 23rd September.

Based on the "God's Never-Ending Story" series of studies, this is part 5 in the series - "The Story includes Us!" - some history of the church in Aotearoa NZ. As it is a 'stand-alone' study, there is no requirement to have attended any of the earlier studies, just come along to one or two, or all the remaining sessions in this series.

Study books are $15 each and can be purchased from the Parish Office. Enquiries to Murray Mills (who will lead/facilitate the study), phone 835-0884

Exiled to Lesotho, and then Zimbabwe, where he narrowly survived an assassination attempt, he returned to South Africa to found the Institute for Healing of Memories.

Michael will be visiting Hawke's Bay on Tuesday 21st August and will speak about his life and his new book, in the Cathedral at 7.30pm, followed by an opportunity to meet Michael and socialize with refreshments. Copies of the book will be on sale.
