A very warm WELCOME to all who are worshipping with us today -- especially if you are visiting Napier or at the Cathedral for the first time.

Today, at the 10am service, we are continuing to experiment with a new way of coming up for communion.

Being aware of those who have difficulty using the stairs to come up for communion, and being aware that most weeks we serve some people separately in the congregation, and wanting to have a sense of all gathering together, we would like to trial a new way.

We will gather along the bottom of the chancel steps - come up the centre aisle and fill in from the far side - by the eagle lectern on the right and the pulpit on the left. Standing is recommended but if you wish to kneel on the bottom step you may. Communion will be served starting at the lectern/ pulpit and moving to the middle. Please leave via the side aisles.

This is very much an experiment which we will try for 8 weeks and then we will seek feedback on whether we feel this is a good idea. Please reserve your judgement for at least a couple of weeks as it will feel awkward to begin with. But be assured we will listen to the feedback as this may or may not work well.

Please be sure to stand close to the curve of the steps.

People News ... We remember those who are unwell, receiving treatment in hospital or at home, or awaiting surgery - we pray for Fiona, Joy, Judy, Judith, Diane, Dorothy, Eileen, Isobel, Kate, Millie (and the Ronberg family), and Carrie (Taranaki Dean Jamie Allen's daughter).

We pray, and offer our loving support, for the family and friends of the late Nancye Keeble whose funeral was held in the Cathedral last Friday.

TODAY Dean Helen Jacobi is in Auckland attending the concluding sessions of the annual Dean's conference, and preaching at this morning's service at the Holy Trinity Cathedral, Auckland.

TODAY we welcome the Rev'd Canon Robert Kereopa as our guest preacher at the 10.00 am service. Robert is the Executive Officer for the Anglican Board of Missions.

At 12.30 pm today, we'll have a "pot-luck" lunch at St Augustine's (cnr Latham St & Riverbend Rd) for a more relaxed opportunity to chat with Robert and hear more about the ABM's work.

At 2.30 pm this afternoon, the Napier Civic Choir & HB Orchestra present their final performance of a Baroque Concert (door sales available); and at 3.00 pm this afternoon, the Rev'd Stephen Hayes will be installed as the next Vicar of Taradale, service at All Saints' Church, cnr Puketapu & Church Rds, Taradale.

then at 6.30 pm this evening, at St Luke's Parish Lounge, (24 Te Mata Rd, Havelock North) - "Till Death Us Do Part - the Past, Present & Future of Marriage" - a Spirited Conversation focused on the nature of marriage. Speakers will touch on marriage in the Bible, the history of 'Christian' marriage, and the current challenges facing the Church. There will also be plenty of opportunity for discussion. All welcome. Tea and coffee provided, koha appreciated.

Evensong with the Choristers
Thursday 23 August, 5.30 pm

ROSTERS for the next three months (September/October/November) have been emailed; printed copies are available from the Office upon request.

God's Mission in our Community
Saturday 25 August

A parish workshop exploring where God is at work amongst us; for all Cathedral and St Augustine's parishioners, to be held at St Augustine's, 12.30-4.30pm, beginning with lunch. This workshop will have us working in small groups to discern together where God is at work and what we are called to do as church for God's mission; facilitated by the Rev'd Erice Fairbrother and the Rev'd Dr Jenny Dawson - Erice says "At the end you will have clear achievable places you want to end up in, with steps to walk to get there." Sign up sheet on the back table. (And could we have a couple of volunteers to bring big pots of soup for lunch please.)

GUEST PREACHERS:

Sunday 26 August 5pm Evensong:

Rev'd Dr Jenny Dawson celebrating her graduation with a Doctor of Ministry from Melbourne University. Celebratory bubbles to follow. Also marking the 350th anniversary of the Book of Common Prayer.

Sunday 2 September, 10.00 am:

Rev'd Dr Helen-Ann Hartley, Dean of St John's Theological College, Auckland.

Redeeming the Past - My Journey from Freedom Fighter to Healer

Fr Michael Lapsley, born in Hastings, NZ, joined the Society of the Sacred Mission and was sent to South Africa in 1973, where he became active in the anti-apartheid movement, ultimately joining the African National Congress (ANC). Exiled to Lesotho, and then Zimbabwe, where he narrowly survived an assassination attempt, he returned to South Africa to found the Institute for Healing of Memories.

Michael will be visiting Hawke's Bay on Tuesday 21st August and will speak about his life and his new book, in the Cathedral at 7.30pm, followed by an opportunity to meet Michael and socialize with refreshments. Copies of the book will be on sale.

ORGAN UPDATE

The next fund-raising event is a Musical Instrument Fair, 22-23 September, in the Clive Hall. The Committee are collecting instruments for sale now. Donate your instrument or we can sell on your behalf for a commission. Phone June Clifford 835 9522.

ORGAN REBUILD PROGRESS

A team of four workers from the South Island Organ Company arrive here TOMORROW, 20th August, to commence "on-site" work on existing parts of the organ, and will be working here for approx two weeks.

New console with jams, stops & top in SIOC workshop

STUDY GROUP

A 'winter' study series is taking a two week break; resuming on Sunday 2nd September, 4.30 - 6.00 pm in the upstairs Choir room; then continuing for the final sessions on Sundays 9th, 16th & 23rd September.

Based on the "God's Never-Ending Story" series of studies, this is part 5 in the series - "The Story includes Us!" - some history of the church in Aotearoa NZ. As it is a 'stand-alone' study, there is no requirement to have attended any of the earlier studies, just come along to one or two, or all the remaining sessions in this series.

Study books are $15 each and can be purchased from the Parish Office.

Enquiries to Murray Mills (who will lead/facilitate the study), phone 835-0884

PRECIOUS BOOK LOST!

Rev'd Jon Williams is sorely missing his autographed copy of The Gift Endures (a book on the history of the Diocese of Waiapu, published a few years ago). Can you help? Please phone Jon, 8351566, if you have borrowed it or know where it is.

The Cathedral Pipe Organ is in Timaru at the South Island Organ Company for its planned rebuild, and will be away for most of 2012. The organ you hear today is an electronic Rodgers 805B PDI Organ. The speakers are in the organ chamber where the pipes once were. To find out more about our organ project, and how to support the rebuild, please pick up a brochure from the back of the Cathedral. And follow progress of the rebuild on the SIOC's Facebook page!
