A very warm WELCOME to all who are worshipping with us today -- especially if you are visiting Napier or at the Cathedral for the first time.

Today, at the 10am service, we are continuing to experiment with a new way of coming up for communion.

Being aware of those who have difficulty using the stairs to come up for communion, and being aware that most weeks we serve some people separately in the congregation, and wanting to have a sense of all gathering together, we would like to trial a new way.

We will gather along the bottom of the chancel steps - come up the centre aisle and fill in from the far side - by the eagle lectern on the right and the pulpit on the left. Standing is recommended but if you wish to kneel on the bottom step you may. Communion will be served starting at the lectern/ pulpit and moving to the middle. Please leave via the side aisles.

And please be sure to stand close to the curve of the steps and take your time!

This is very much an experiment, which we commenced on the 5th August for a period of 8 weeks; survey forms are available on the back table from today, and will be available for the next two weeks - please complete and 'post' into the "Surveys" box, or return to the Parish Office. Thanks.

TODAY ...

The Waiapu Diocesan Synod continues in Dannevirke (commenced yesterday); Dean Helen Jacobi, Rev'd Margaret Thompson and Alison Thomson are attending representing the Cathedral; Rev'ds Graeme Pilgrim and Jon Williams attended yesterday's session.

Welcome to the family of Janna Neve Rieter as they present her for Baptism in the Cathedral at 10.00 am this morning.

At 4.30 pm this afternoon, the study group continues with the "God's Never-Ending Story" studies, in our upstairs choir room.
