We continue to uphold the West family in our thoughts and prayers as Fiona receives on-going treatment, alternating between Palmerston North and Hastings.

We pray for Pamela Brougham-Best and any others known to us who are unwell; and for the family of Joy Cowlrick whose funeral will be held at Ormond Chapel at 11.00 am next Tuesday.

Congratulations to Phoebe Sparrow, a member of the Cathedral Choir, who was awarded the Hawke's Bay Young Musician of the Year Prize last week. This is a most coveted award and Phoebe entered as a singer. Proud teacher Judith Howlett prepared her for the competition.

Cathedral Book Group

Have you read any good books lately? If so, we would love to hear about it!

Several of us are keen to have the opportunity to talk about books we've enjoyed and to hear about books that others have enjoyed.

We plan to collect up books on loan from people; record them and then have them available for borrowing.

They don't have to be books about faith specifically but need to be books which make us think about life and faith.

They can be novels, biographies, non fiction, art

So the process is:

- 📖 lend your book/s (make sure your name is in it);
- 📖 borrow someone else's book;
- 📖 read it;
- 📖 share your thoughts about your reading, with others, in a written note on a sheet which will be in the book and / or join a discussion on a book group day (time and place yet to be determined);
- 📖 invite others (may be a parishioner, maybe not) to join in.

Please come and join us!

Want to know more? Speak to Vicki Vaughan after church this morning.

We aim to have the first box of books ready to go by Sunday 9th October – so bring them in before then so they can be catalogued and ready for lending.

CONGRATULATIONS to our colleagues and brothers and sisters of the Hastings Anglican Parish of St Matthew's. They have completed the refurbishment of their historic church and will be celebrating with a service and a concert on Wednesday 21 September at 7.30 pm (St Matthew's Day). All welcome.
