DIOCESAN SYNOD

The Synod of the Diocese met last weekend in Gisborne. We were privileged to worship at Toko Toro Tapu Church at Manutuke, a beautiful Maori church in the process of being restored.

Synod discussed many matters including economic and social issues such as child poverty and alcohol abuse. We heard an account of the Bishop's trip to Papua New Guinea, and reports of the extensive Social Services work across the Diocese.

Dean Helen has completed her term on Standing Committee so that frees up a few days in the calendar.

DIOCESAN REVIEW

Diocesan representatives plan to undertake a routine five-yearly review of the Cathedral Parish in October. There will be a Parish meeting on Saturday 16 October, 10.30am-12noon with our reviewers. This is an important opportunity for us to feed into the review which will give us feedback on how we are doing.

Canterbury Earthquake Appeal A Message from Bishop David

After the recent devastating earthquake, it is important we, as a Diocese, show our support to the people of Canterbury. I am asking all Waiapu parishes to make donations. All money received will assist the Diocese of Christchurch in its ministry, care and support to people most in need. Please write all cheques to the 'Diocese of Waiapu – Christchurch Emergency Appeal', or alternatively, donations may be sent to the Waiapu Diocesan Office (Box 227, Napier) marked 'Christchurch Emergency Appeal'. Please ensure you address the envelope to the attention of Brent Chamberlain. We are happy to send receipts if requested.
