You are welcome to stay for morning tea after the 10.00 am service.

TODAY our Parish Eucharist theme is "Getting Ready" as we prepare for the Advent and Christmas seasons. And the group of young people exploring faith and life questions make their first commitment in the Catechumenate Rite.

PARISH NURSE

Shirley Pope our Parish Nurse has an injured knee and will be on the receiving end of some nursing for a while and so will be "on leave" from her parish nurse activities until the new year.

We wish her a speedy recovery!

Marathon Bishop Survives to Tell the Story!

Yes, I'm still standing, I will post a video clip on OMG web-site with "my-side-of-the-story" as soon as I can get out of bed to do so (kidding). It was a beautiful race day, the run across the Harbour Bridge was stunning, and soon thereafter I entered the world of calf-cramps. Again, I'll offer details in due course, in the meantime, I finished, 4 hrs-ish and most, most importantly, thanks to those who generously sponsored me to help our whanau, friends and colleagues in Christchurch. Sponsorship will continue to be welcomed in light of the fact that I actually survived. Again, thanks everyone. Arohanui +David
