CHRISTMAS COMMUNITY LUNCH

Following on from the success of the 2010 Napier Community Christmas Lunch, planning is underway again for the 2011 event, again hosted by All Saints' Parish, Taradale. This lunch is a Napier combined churches event with the key focus being on people who feel lonely or will be alone on Christmas day but would like to share Christmas lunch with others.

Volunteer helpers needed!

The organisers need people who can:

1. offer transport on the day
2. help set up on 24th December
3. help on the day itself
4. provide food/provisions for the lunch
5. provide cash donations towards costs
6. be on the catering team

If you can help, please contact Sally Muir by calling the dedicated Christmas lunch line at All Saints' Parish Office, phone 844 2998 extension 9; or send Sally an email to: puddlejumper@xtra.co.nz

GIVING THANKS FOR GIFTS

We received notification this week that parishioner Jeanine Kennedy left the Cathedral $1000 in her will. As we continue to mourn her passing we give thanks for her generosity.

And a parishioner gave $10,000 to the organ fund this week. This is the largest individual donation we have received. Again we give thanks.

People news:

It was with sadness that we learnt of the death of Father John Kelly, one of the Monks at the Southern Star Abbey, Kopua, CHB. His funeral will be held there on Tuesday. We uphold the monastery community and friends in prayer as they mourn the passing of one of their senior members.

And we continue to pray for Fiona and the West family; Felix and the King family as they receive on-going treatment in Hawke's Bay and Starship Hospitals; also the Eagles family as Leanne recovers from surgery, and the O'Brien family with Isobel recovering from surgery.

Shirley Pope our Parish Nurse has an injured knee and will be on the receiving end of some nursing for a while and so will be "on leave" from her parish nurse activities until the new year.

We wish her a speedy recovery!
