Processional Hymn: *More than all the dazzling beauty

More than all the dazzling beauty of a billion stars so bright, far beyond the rugged grandeur
of some lofty mountain height, more than heart and mind can fathom, ear can hear, or eye can see,
is the glory God discloses in the Man of Galilee.

All that sculpture can embody,
all that poetry can say,
all that drama can interpret,
all an artist can portray,
all that science can unravel from the cosmos to the cell -
God reveals in Christ a splendour such as these can scarcely tell.

Babe in squalor! Child in danger!
Man so seldom understood!
Man whose fervour and compassion led to thorns and nails and wood:
such a life he spent among us, such a depth of care he gave,
till that costly self-surrender to the scourge, the cross, the grave.

There is beauty in his kindness and the truth of all he said;
there is glory in his anguish
and his rising from the dead.
God, we marvel at the splendour of the grace that makes us whole:
power beyond imagination yielding all to love's control.

Martin E. Leckebusch (b.1962) Tune: ABBOT'S LEIGH

Sung Kyries - Repeat after choir: after verses 1 & 3 Kyrie eleison, after verse 2 Christe eleison

Sentence: Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, carrying their sheaves. (Psalm 126.6)

Collect: God, all love comes from you; Mary's perfume on Christ's feet,
His blood spent upon the cross,
signal your extravagance:
warm our hearts with your love;
deliver us from all meanness of spirit;
make us generous in all we are;
through Jesus Christ our Lord;
who lives and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reading: Isaiah 43:16-21 Keith James

Psalm 126 (Choir): When God restored our common life

When God restored our common life, our hope, our liberty, at first it seemed a passing dream, a waking fantasy.
A shock of joy swept over us, for we had wept so long;
the seeds we watered once with tears sprang up into a song.

We went forth weeping, sowing seeds in hard, unyielding soil;
with laughing hearts we carry home the fruit of all our toil.
We praise the One who gave the growth, with voices full and strong.
The seeds we watered once with tears sprang up into a song.

Great liberating God, we pray for all who are oppressed.
May those who long for what is right with justice now be blest.
We pray for those who mourn this day, and all who suffer wrong;
may seeds they water now with tears spring up into a song.

Ruth C. Duck, based on Psalm 126 Tune: THIRD MODE MELODY (CP #124)

*During the next hymn the bread and wine, symbols of Christ's life, are brought to the altar; donations to the Food Bank are presented,
and our offerings of money to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral are collected, along with pledges made via electronic banking.*

Offertory Hymn: This is my body, broken for you

This is my body, broken for you, bringing you wholeness, making you free.
Take it and eat it, and when you do, do it in love for me.

This is my blood, poured out for you, bringing forgiveness, making you free.
Take it and drink it, and when you do, do it in love for me.

Back to my Father soon I shall go.
Do not forget me; then you will see
I am still with you, and you will know you're very close to me.

Filled with my Spirit, how you will grow!
You are my branches, I am the tree.
If you are faithful, others will know you are alive in me.

Love one another; I have loved you,
and I have shown you how to be free;
serve one another, and when you do, do it in love for me.

Jimmy Owens, (v3-5 Damian Lundy)

Recessional hymn: *Take my life and let it be

Take my life and let it be consecrated, glad, and free;
take my moments and my days,
let them flow in ceaseless praise.

4. Take my will – your will be done,
may my will and yours be one;
take my heart – it is your own,
it shall be your royal throne.

2. Take my hands and let them move at the impulse of your love;
take my feet, that I may run bearing news of Christ your Son.

5. Take my love – my Lord, I pour at your feet its treasure store;
take myself and I will be
yours for all eternity.

3. Take my voice and let me sing always, only for my King;
take my intellect and use
every power as you shall choose.
