Processional Hymn: For the beauty of the earth

1. For the beauty of the earth, for the beauty of the skies, for the love which from our birth over and around us lies,

Christ our God, to you we raise this our sacrifice of praise.

2. For the beauty of each hour of the day and of the night, hill and vale, and tree and flower, sun and moon and stars of light,

*Christ our God, to you we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

3. For the joy of human love, brother, sister, parent, child, friends on earth and friends above, pleasures pure and undefiled,

*Christ our God, to you we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

4. For each perfect give divine to our race so freely given, joys bestowed by love's design, flowers of earth

and fruits of heaven,
*Christ our God, to you we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

5. For the church that evermore, lifting holy hands above, offers up on every shore
the pure sacrifice of love,

*Christ our God, to you we raise
this our sacrifice of praise.*

Sentence: All who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted. Luke 14.11

Collect: Let us pray that we might be imitators of Christ the Servant:

God of compassion and mercy, in the humble Christ you take the lowest place among us; may we see and serve you in those who are poor, and those whose lives are burdened by disabilities;
through Jesus our help, who is alive with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Psalm 126: Choir and congregation

1. When Zion's fortunes God restored, it was a dream come true.

Our mouths were then with laughter filled, our tongues with songs anew.

2. Then nations said, "The Lord has done great things for Israel."

The Lord did mighty things for us, and joy our hearts knew well.

3. Restore our fortunes, gracious Lord, like streams in desert soil.

A joyful harvest will reward the weeping sower's toil.

4. All those who, bearing seed to sow, go out with tears of grief, will come again with songs of joy, and bear their harvest sheaf.

Gospel hymn: Canticle of the turning

My soul cries out with a joyful shout that the God of my heart is great,

And my spirit sings of the wondrous things that you bring to the ones who wait.

You fixed your sight on your servant's plight, and my weakness you did not spurn, so from east to west shall my name be blest.

Could the world be about to turn?

Refrain:

My heart shall sing of the day you bring.

Let the fires of your justice burn.

Wipe away all tears,

For the dawn draws near,

And the world is about to turn.

WOMEN: Though I am small, my God, my all, you work great things in me, and your mercy will last from the depths of the past to the end of the age to be.

Cont'd overleaf

Your very name puts the proud to shame, and to those who would for you yearn,
You will show your might, put the strong to flight, for the world is about to turn. (Refrain)

MEN: From the halls of power to the fortress tower, not a stone will be left on stone.
Let the king beware for your justice tears every tyrant from his throne.
The hungry poor shall weep no more, for the food they can never earn;
there are tables spread, ev'ry mouth be fed,
for the world is about to turn. (Refrain)

ALL: Though the nations rage from age to age, we remember who holds us fast: God's mercy must deliver us from the conqueror's crushing grasp.
This saving word that our forebears heard is the promise that holds us bound,
'til the spear and rod be crushed by God, who is turning the world around.

My heart shall sing of the day you bring.
Let the fires of your justice burn.
Wipe away all tears,
For the dawn draws near,
And the world is about to turn. Repeat the refrain*

We share notices and news

Recessional hymn: Lord of our growing years

1. Lord of our growing years, with us from infancy, laughter and quick-dried tears, freshness and energy:
*your grace surrounds us all our days
for all your gifts we bring our praise.*

2. Lord of our strongest years, stretching our youthful powers, lovers and pioneers
when all the world seems ours:
*your grace surrounds us all our days
for all your gifts we bring our praise.*

3. Lord of our middle years, giver of steadfastness, courage that perseveres when there is small success:
*your grace surrounds us all our days
for all your gifts we bring our praise.*

4. Lord of our older years, steep though the road may be,
rid us of foolish fears,
bring us serenity:
*your grace surrounds us all our days
for all your gifts we bring our praise.*

5. Lord of our closing years, always your promise stands;
hold us when death appears,
safely within your hands:
*your grace surrounds us all our days
for all your gifts we bring our praise.*

David Mowbray – Tune: LITTLE CORNARD

Dismissal: Go now to love and serve the Lord. Go in peace.
Amen. We go in the name of Christ.

NOTICES

- ◆ ORMOND CHAPEL CELEBRATION Next Sunday: You are warmly invited to be involved. If you wish to worship at the Cathedral at 10.00am you can still attend the shared, casual lunch (bring finger food) which will follow the Ormond commemorative service (11.00am). Lunch will be served shortly after midday, so there is plenty of time to get to Napier Terrace. You will be able to inspect the chairs gifted by St. James, Mahora following the closure of that church. Vestry will be seeking a faculty to remove and sell the existing pews, making the church a much more flexible space for a variety of church and community activities

- ◆ Following the conclusion of this year's Synod gathering, Bishop Andrew will be at the Cathedral in order to bless the civil marriage of Dean Ian and Philip. - ◆ Cathedral Guides- With summer just around the corner it is the season for about 70 cruise ships to be visiting Napier Port again. It would be lovely to have the Cathedral open from 10am till 2pm every day, but especially when the cruise ships are here, from October till April. If you would like to offer 2 hours per week, fortnight or month to be in the Cathedral as part of the welcoming team, I would be delighted to hear from you. Welcomers work in pairs so you always have company and you have the opportunity to meet a variety of very interesting people from around the world. There is training and material about our Cathedral available, but the most important thing is to have a smile and be welcoming to our visitors. Helen 844 8574, 021 354 717 or
