PROCESSIONAL HYMN: It is God who holds the nations

It is God who hold the nations with a firm but tender hand; it is God whose light is shining in the gloom across the land;
it is God who builds the City on the Rock and not the sand:
may the living God be praised!

Praise and glory to the Maker, Praise and glory to the Saviour, Praise and glory to the Spirit, may the Living God be praised!

It is God whose purpose summons us to use the present hour;
who recalls us to our senses when a nation's life is sour;
in the discipline of freedom all our people share the power:
may the living God be praised!

Praise and glory to the Maker...

When a thankful nation, looking back, has cause to celebrate those who win our admiration by their service to the state; when self-giving is a measure of the greatness of the great:
may the living God be praised!

Praise and glory to the Maker...

God reminds us every sunrise that the world is ours on lease - for the sake of life tomorrow, may our love for it increase; may all races live together, share its riches, be at peace:
may the living God be praised!

Praise and glory to the Maker...

Sentence: How can I repay you O LORD for all the good things you have done to me? I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord; I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all God's people.

Psalm 116. 12-14

Collect: Let us give thanks for all that God has done for us:

Life-giving God,
as we experience your healing,
may we proclaim your deeds,
and turn to you to offer thanks and praise;
through Jesus our Messiah, who is alive with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Reading: 2 Kings 5:1-3, 7-15c Keith James

Choir Psalm 111: 1-4 & 7-10 Anglican Chant, see page 331

Reading: 2 Timothy 2: 8-15 Christina Morgan

GOSPEL HYMN: O God of earth and space

1. O God of earth and space,
Of sea and fire and air,
Your providence surrounds us here and everywhere.
In fruit and grain and tree,
in shelter from the cold,
In cooling breezes, flowing wells,
now as of old.

2. Where faithfulness is shown,
where love and truth abound, where beauty graces human life
there you are found.
Inspirer of all thought,
creative force of art,
The melody on every tongue,
in every heart.

3. Wherever freedom reigns,
where sin is overthrown,
where justice fused with mercy rules,
there you are known.
Give us the courage clear to make the earth a home for all to live in harmony in Christ's shalom.

4. Your word commands response and summons us to life
we follow strengthened by your grace in calm or strife.
Our ever present help,
our staff and shepherd's rod
We praise you now and to life's end Eternal God.

Tune: LEONI

Gospel Reading: Luke 17: 11-19 Jennifer Harris

The Sermon: Dean Ian Render

We greet the people near us, saying 'Peace be with you' or 'Kia tau te rangimarie'.

The organ introduces the Offertory Hymn and the bread and wine, symbols of Christ's life, are brought to the altar; donations to the Food Bank are presented, and our offerings of money to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral are collected, along with pledges made via electronic banking.

OFFERTORY HYMN: God who weeps when we are weeping

1. God who weeps when we are weeping, maker, lover, friend of all,
we commit into your keeping those who suffer, struggle, fall.
Plant the seeds of peace inside us in these days of fateful choice; let your word and wisdom guide us as we listen for your voice.
2. Christ, enduring hate and violence, hounded to a martyr's death, calmly meeting taunts with silence, speaking peace with your last breath:
peace, courageous and demanding, binds us as we walk your way.
May our wills, at your commanding, turn to acts of peace today.

Cont'd overleaf

3. Spirit, strengthen and sustain us, grant us comfort, hope and light, lead us in your ways and train us as we strive for truth and right, rise above retaliation,
live the peace we long to hear,
look for reconciliation past our anger, pain and fear.
4. God of every race and nation, God of mercy, strong and just,
build again in us compassion, recreate our hope and trust.
If our lives seem dark and empty, may we learn to live as one till, in safety, peace and plenty, all your work on earth is done.

Marnie Barrell, Tune: EBENEZER

NZPB page: 420 THE GREAT THANKSGIVING & THE INVITATION

Once the ministers of Communion have received, all are welcome to share the bread and wine of Christ's life, or to receive a blessing - please come to the altar rails via the centre aisle and return to your seats via the side aisles (or use the ramp if necessary and take a place at the rear altar rail). Standing or kneeling are both appropriate postures for receiving.

Christians of any tradition or denomination are welcome at our Lord's table

Please advise an usher if you need to have communion served in your seat

POST COMMUNION RESPONSE: Give thanks with a grateful heart

Give thanks with a grateful heart, give thanks to the Holy One, give thanks because He's given Jesus Christ, his Son (repeat)

And now let the weak say, "I am strong" Let the poor say, "I am rich Because of what the Lord has done for us" (repeat)

Give thanks.

Words and music by Henry Smith

We share notices and news

RECESSIONAL HYMN: Who would walk cheerfully

1. Who would walk cheerfully through storm and shadow, these hearts beat staunch and free,
wise to the rainbow:
no threat will cloud our sight,
we'll work for what is right, we'll trust the Inner Light
to live as Christians.

2. Who lets the world look dark is no companion,
we'll let no dire remark
change our opinion,
we'll walk the stony track,
strong hope within our pack, we'll counter gloom's attack,
to live as Christians.

3. Who live the simple life,
give honest labour,
plant seed to grow belief,
honour their neighbour,
ring freedom's sounding bell,
visit the prison cell,
undo the hurt of hell
to live as Christians.

4. We'll walk the world for peace, makers and menders,
we'll promote in every place
peaceful agendas:
hands-on to teach and tend,
to see all colours blend,
to meet each soul as friend,
to live as Christians.

Shirley Erena Murray "Hymn for Quaker Friends" Tune: MONK'S GATE

Dismissal: Go now to love and serve the Lord. Go in peace.
Amen. We go in the name of Christ.

NOTICES

- ◆ October 13th-20th is Week of prayer for world peace. See notice board for further details.
- ◆ The Cathedral's production of Godspell has been re-scheduled to the end of May 2020 to avoid clashing with other cultural events. We will shortly be seeking patrons to financially support this production
- ◆ Sale of Deanery: Agencies are currently being interviewed by the Dean and the People's Warden. Speak to them if you would like more information, or see the Cathedral bulletin for 29 September for more information
- ◆ The next AAW meeting will be held on Monday 14th October at 7:30pm in St Paul's Lounge. Members please bring an item that has special significance to you and that you can talk about for 2 minutes to share with the group. This will be a more social evening before the AGM next month. There will be nomination forms available at the meeting so please think about who you would like to represent you on the committee. Remember my 3 years as leader is up!
- ◆ The next Knit-In group will be meeting from 10am on Monday 28th October in the Children's Corner at the Napier Library.
Contacts: Helen Ph 844 8574 or Kay Ph 834 4096
- ◆ The AAW would very much appreciate any donations or any wool you may have, to be able to continue with their wonderful service of knitting for the Napier Family Centre. Contact Helen Blow, Kay Memmott or Marie Knight for more information.
- ◆ Help to create resources to support Godly Play sessions for children and adults would be greatly appreciated. If you can sew, paint, craft, or carve, cut, or construct with wood, please talk to Janine Melville 836 5305 / 021 1363 454 / melvillejmn@gmail.com
- ◆ Saturday October 19, a Sing-in Messiah, starting at 1:30 pm. Come and sing some of the best choruses from Handel's Messiah in a workshop/rehearsal led by Anthony Tattersall, with Michael Fletcher as organist. After a tea break a short concert will begin at 4 pm, featuring several solos as well as the learned choruses. Cost? $15 for the workshop, $5 for the concert. Bring your friends and family - all are welcome.
