Processional Hymn: Let Us Sing the God of Glory

1. Let us sing the God of glory who has set the stars in place, with the planets in their courses as they cross the heaven's face,
and the constellations shining to the boundaries of space,
our God whose name is love!

Refrain: Praise and glory to our Maker, praise and glory to our Saviour, praise and glory to the Spirit, our God whose name is love!

2 Let us sing the God of beauty in the mountains and the seas,
all the colours of the rainbow and the tracery of trees,
in the thunder of the breakers and the whisper of the breeze,
our God whose name is love! Refrain:

3 Let us sing the God of bounty for a fruitful earth and fair,
who provides for us in plenty so that all may have a share,
and who loves the human family with an everlasting care,
our God whose name is love! Refrain:

4 Let us sing the Saviour Jesus as he makes the Father known,
let us hear the Spirit's call to us to live for God alone,
and to worship him in glory on the everlasting throne,
our God whose name is love! Refrain:

Sentence: Blessed are you when people hate you on account of the Son of man. Rejoice and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven.

Luke 6.23

Collect: God of transformation,
you heal our troubled spirit;
turn out hearts to follow your way of humility
that we may find the blessing of new life;
through Jesus our Messiah,
who is alive with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

Reading:

1 Corinthians 15: 12-20

Pam Medcalf

Gospel Hymn: Welcome Jesus, you are welcome

1. Welcome, Jesus, you are welcome
in this world made hard by fear;
loving reach us, living teach us,
Jesus, you are welcome here.

3. Welcome, Jesus, you are welcome
with the wealthy and the poor;
give the broken love unspoken,
open wide each prison door.

2. Welcome, Jesus, you are welcome
in the ghettos we have made;
give the tattered,
bruised, and battered winter shelter, summer shade.

4. Welcome, Jesus, you are welcome.
Let your loving light appear.
In our seeing, in our being,
Jesus, you are welcome here.

*Words and music – Dan Damon
Tune: SWEETWATER*

Gospel Reading: Luke 6: 17-26

We greet the people near us, saying ‘Peace be with you’ or ‘Kia tau te rangimarie’.

*During the next hymn the bread and wine, symbols of Christ’s life,
are brought to the altar;
donations to the Food Bank are presented,
and our offerings of money to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral are collected, along with pledges made via electronic banking.*

Offertory Hymn: Let us break bread together

- 1 Let us break bread together on our knees,
let us break bread together on our knees.

Refrain: When I fall on my knees with my face to the rising sun, O Lord, have mercy on me.

- 2 Let us drink from the chalice on our knees ...
- 3 Let us bless one another on our knees ...
- 4 Let us pray in the Spirit on our knees ...
- 5 Let us praise God together on our knees ...

African-American Spiritual

NZPB page: 436-439 THE GREAT THANKSGIVING & THE INVITATION

The Choir sing the Agnus Dei whilst the communion assistants receive communion; then the Choir move to the altar rails to receive communion; then all are welcome to share the bread and wine of Christ's life, or to receive a blessing - please come to the altar rails via the centre aisle and return to your seats via the side aisles (or use the ramp if necessary and take a place at the rear altar rail).

Please advise an usher if you need to have communion served in your seat

Post -Communion hymn: Do you not know this is our God?

SOLOIST:

1. Do you not know? This is our God!
Were you not told his holy name?
Have you not heard? He is the Lord,
age after age ever the same.

CHOIR:

2. To whom will you compare the Lord,
the God no image can portray?
No artist has sufficient skill,
his might or glory to display.

3. Beyond all earth, beyond the skies,
he reigns, enthroned as king of all;
though earthly rulers flaunt their power,
at his command their empires fall.

5. How can you worry that your God might choose to disregard your prayer?
He neither slumbers nor forgets,
and you enjoy his constant care.

4. Who is there like the holy one?
And who can fathom his design?
The planets' orbit he decrees,
and causes sun and stars to shine.

6. So trust the everlasting Lord your failing vigour to renew –
then you shall soar on eagles' wings,
with God himself sustaining you.

Martin E. Leckebusch – Tune: O RIGHTEOUS LORD (Christopher Norton)

We share notices and news

Recessional hymn: God is our strength and refuge

1. God is our strength and refuge,
our present help in trouble;
and we therefore will not fear,
though the earth should change!
Though mountains shake and tremble,
though swirling floods are raging,
God the Lord of hosts
is with us evermore!

3 Come, see the works of our maker,
learn of his deeds all-powerful:
wars will cease across the world
when he shatters the spear!
Be still and know your Creator,
uplifted in the nations —
God the Lord of hosts
is with us evermore!

2. There is a flowing river,
within God's holy city;
God is in the midst of her —
she shall not be moved!
God's help is swiftly given,
thrones vanish at his presence —
God the Lord of hosts
is with us evermore!

*Words: Richard Bewes based on Psalm 46
Tune: DAM BUSTERS' MARCH (Eric Coates)*

Dismissal: Go now to love and serve the Lord. Go in peace.
Amen. We go in the name of Christ.

Organ Voluntary

The ashes of the Rev'd Graeme Pilgrim were interred in the memorial lawn at St. Matthew's, Hastings in a moving service on the afternoon of 3 February, led by The Rev'd Alister Hendery. This was a private occasion at Peter's request. Cathedral clergy and friends were in attendance. We advise that Graeme has most generously made a bequest to the Cathedral.

You are invited to join us for a cup of tea and coffee served at the back of the Cathedral following the 10.00am service.
