Processional Hymn: O Day of Peace

O day of peace that dimly shines through all our hopes and prayers and dreams, guide us to justice, truth, and love,
delivered from our selfish schemes.
May swords of hate fall from our hands,
our hearts from envy find release, till by God's grace our warring world shall see Christ's promised reign of peace.

Then shall the wolf dwell with the lamb, nor shall the fierce devour the small;
as beasts and cattle calmly graze,
a little child shall lead them all.
Then enemies shall learn to love,
all creatures find their true accord;
the hope of peace shall be fulfilled,
for all the earth shall know the Lord.

Gospel hymn: *Spirit of God most high

1 Spirit of God most high, Sovereign of power and might;
source of our Easter joy,
well-spring of life and light:
strip from the church its cloak of pride,
a stumbling-block to those outside.

2 Wind of the Spirit, blow!
into the valley sweep,
bringing the bones to life,
wakening each from sleep:
speak to the church your firm command,
and bid a scattered host to stand.

3 Fire of God's Spirit, melt
every unbending heart;
your people's love renew
as at their journey's start:
your reconciling grace release
to bring the Christian family peace.

4 Spirit of Christ our Lord, send us to do your will;
nothing need hold us back
for you are with us still:
forgetful of ourselves, may we receive your gift of unity!

David Mowbray (born 1938), adapted. Tune: LITTLE CORNARD

Gospel Reading: John 13: 31-35

are brought to the altar; donations to the Food Bank are presented, and our offerings of money

Offertory Hymn: Let us build a house

Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where prophets speak,
and words are strong and true,
where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace;
here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:
All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine, and wheat:
a banquet hall on holy ground where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God, through Jesus, is revealed in time and space;
as we share in Christ the feast that free us:
All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.    (cont.)

Let us build a house where hands will reach beyond the wood and stone to heal and strengthen, serve and teach, and live the Word they've known.
Here the outcast and the stranger bear the image of God's face;
let us bring an end to fear and danger:
All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where all are named, their songs and visions heard and loved and treasured, taught and claimed as words within the Word.
Built of tears and cries and laughter, prayers of faith and songs of grace, let this house proclaim from floor to rafter:
All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Words and music by Marty Haugen Tune: TWO OAKS

NZPB page: 485-489 THE GREAT THANKSGIVING & THE INVITATION

The Choir sing the Agnus Dei whilst the communion assistants receive communion; then the Choir move to the altar rails to receive communion; then all are welcome to share the bread and wine of Christ's life, or to receive a blessing - please come to the altar rails via the centre aisle and return to your seats via the side aisles (or use the ramp if necessary and take a place at the rear altar rail).

Christians of any tradition are welcome at our Lord's table

Please advise an usher if you need to have communion served in your seat

NZPB page: 490 Prayer after Communion & Blessing Dean Ian Render

We share notices and news

Recessional hymn: *I have a dream, a man once said

“I have a dream”, a man once said, “where all is perfect peace;
where men and women, black and white, stand hand in hand, and all unite
in freedom and in love,
in freedom and in love.”

(cont.)

But in this world of bitter strife
the dream can often fade;
reality seems dark as night,
we catch but glimpses of the light
Christ sheds on humankind...

Fierce persecution, war, and hate
are raging everywhere;
God calls us now to pay the price
through struggles and through sacrifice of standing for the right...

So dream the dreams and sing the songs,
but never be content:
for thoughts and words don't ease the pain:
unless there's action, all is vain;
faith proves itself in deeds...

Lord, give us vision, make us strong,
help us to do your will;
don't let us rest until we see your love throughout humanity uniting us in peace...

Pamela J. Pettit Tune: REPTON ( Pam wrote "I have a dream" while training for ordained ministry, for the re-naming of the Northern Baptist College property in Manchester as Luther King House.)

Dismissal: Go now to love and serve the Lord. Go in peace.
Amen. We go in the name of Christ.

Organ Voluntary

Alleluia

*You are invited to join us for a cup of tea and coffee served at the back of the Cathedral
following the 10.00am
service.*

I had the privilege of meeting hymnwriter Carl Daw at an ecumenical hymn conference in Australia some years ago. He was asked to write new words for Parry's popular tune JERUSALEM. His text (of 1982), which draws strongly on Isaiah's vision of global peace was a deliberately chosen counter to the aggressive militaristic imagery utilised by the poet William Blake, he told me. - Dean Ian
