PROCESSIONAL HYMN: How firm a foundation

How firm a foundation, O people of God, is laid for our faith in the life-giving Word!
What more can God say to us than has been said to everyone trusting in Jesus our head?

With Jesus beside us, we won't be afraid.
We trust your provision - we won't be dismayed:
you strengthen us, guard us, and help us to stand, upheld by your righteous, omnipotent hand.

When through the deep waters you calls us to go,
the rivers of trouble shall not overflow;
for you will be with us, to help and to bless,
and work for our good through our deepest distress.

When through fiery trials our pathway may lead,
God's grace shall sustain us with all that we need;
the flames shall not hurt us, the maker's design:
our dross to consume and our gold to refine.

Whoever has come to believe in that Name will not be deserted, and not put to shame;
through hell may endeavour that Christian to shake our God will not leave us, nor ever forsake.

Sentence: Will not God grant justice to those who cry to him day and night?
Will he delay long in helping them? Luke 18. 7-8

Collect: Let us pray for a persistent faith in times of struggle:

Holy One,
nameless, you stay with us;
even when we wrestle in the darkness
may we never lose heart until your justice is fulfilled;
through Jesus Christ, our Redeemer,
who is alive with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

GOSPEL HYMN: Maker eternal and sovereign in majesty

Maker, eternal and sovereign in majesty, judgment is yours and condemns all our pride;
stir up our leaders and people to penitence, sorrow for sins that for vengeance have cried.

Jesus, Redeemer born humbly in poverty, sharing a stable with beasts at your birth, stir us to work for your justice and charity,
truly to care for the poor upon earth.

Come, Holy Spirit, create in us holiness, lift up our lives to your standard of right;
stir every will to new ventures of faithfulness, flood the whole church with your glorious light.

Holiest Trinity, perfect in unity, bind in your love every nation and race:
may we adore you for time and eternity,
Maker, Redeemer and Spirit of grace.

Patrick Appleford, adaptation based on the version found in "Together in Song"

Tune: WAS LEBET

413 The Prayers of the People The Rev'd Dorothy Brooker

“O Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord, hear my prayer, when I call, answer me.
O Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord hear my prayer, come and listen to me” TAIZE

NZPB page: 419 The Peace

Dean Ian Render

We greet the people near us, saying ‘Peace be with you’ or ‘Kia tau te rangimarie’.

The organ introduces the Offertory Hymn and the bread and wine, symbols of Christ’s life, are brought to the altar; donations to the Food Bank are presented, and our offerings of money to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral are collected, along with pledges made via electronic banking

OFFERTORY HYMN: I have a dream, a man once said

“I have a dream”, a man once said, “where all is perfect peace;
where men and women,
black and white,
stand hand in hand, and all unite in freedom and in love.”

(repeat the last line of every verse)

2. But in this world of bitter strife the dream can often fade;
reality seems dark as night,
we catch but glimpses of the light
Christ sheds on humankind.

3. Fierce persecution, war, and hate are raging everywhere;
God calls us now to pay the price
through struggles
and through sacrifice
of standing for the right.

4. So dream the dreams
and sing the songs,
but never be content:
for thoughts and words
don’t ease the pain:
unless there’s action, all is vain;
faith proves itself in deeds.

5. God, give us vision, make us strong, help us to do your will;
don’t let us rest until we see your love throughout humanity uniting us in peace.

The text of The Lord's Prayer may be found on p. 424 if needed (English & Te Reo)

Once the ministers of Communion have received, all are welcome to share the bread and wine of Christ's life, or to receive a blessing - please come to the altar rails via the centre aisle and return to your seats via the side aisles (or use the ramp if necessary and take a place at the rear altar rail). Standing or kneeling are both appropriate postures for receiving.

Christians of any tradition or denomination are welcome at our Lord's table

Please advise an usher if you need to have communion served in your seat

We share notices and news

RECESSIONAL HYMN From this holy time

1. From this holy time,
from this sacred space,
we go now to serve
our own day and place,
committed to follow
the way Jesus trod:
do justly, love mercy,
walk humbly with God.

2. He lives in our midst, though gone from our sight,
baptised in his name,
we walk in his light;
we treasure his presence,
example and word:
do justly, love mercy,
walk humbly with God.

3. Let this be our life, till Christ comes again -
to love as he loves
and work for God's reign, this song in our hearts
and this sign on our road:
do justly, love mercy,
walk humbly with God.

Marnie Barrell,
Tune: LAUDATE DOMINUM

Dismissal: Go now to love and serve the Lord. Go in peace.
Amen. We go in the name of Christ.

Organ Voluntary

*You are warmly invited to join us for a cup of tea or coffee
served at the back of the Cathedral following the 10.00am service.*

On Sunday 3 November we will once again be marking All Saints / All Souls as an opportunity to remember our loved ones who have died.

Each year, Diocesan Synods begin with the reading of the names of those who have passed away in the previous 12 months. We will emulate this practice at our morning services on that Sunday, along with the opportunity to present (in writing) the names of any of our loved ones we wish to memorialize.

Once again we are partnering with Dunstall's Funeral Services to welcome all who want to participate in a service of remembrance at 5.00pm. All names will be read aloud at that service. If you have friends who are struggling with bereavement, this is an appropriate opportunity to invite them along.

9.00am - Tuesday-Friday Morning prayer

10.30am - Thursday Mid-week Eucharist in the Resurrection Chapel

12.00pm - Midday prayer- Every Wednesday

Upcoming events at the Cathedral

- ♦ The Cathedral Choir usually meets every Thursday for rehearsals. Children at 6.00 – 6:30pm and the adults 7:00 – 9:00pm. If you are interested in joining, please contact Anthony. (see below for contact details)
- ♦ Godspell auditions– 2nd November.

The office will be closed the 25th and 28th October for Labour Weekend.
