IMPORTANT HEALTH NOTICE: Our Diocese has directed parishes to refrain from the practice of intinction (dipping the wafer into the wine). For health reasons please co-operate with this requirement. Receiving the bread only is still regarded as a full expression of the sacrament, or you can simply hold or receive the chalice and then pass it back to the person serving. Intinction is less hygienic than the common cup.

Processional Hymn: *For the fruits of all creation

For the fruits of all creation,
thanks be to God;
for the gifts of every nation,
thanks be to God;
for the ploughing, sowing, reaping,
silent growth while we are sleeping,
future needs in earth's safe-keeping,
thanks be to God.

In the just reward of labour,
God's will is done;
in the help we give our neighbour,
God's will is done;
in our world-wide task of caring for the hungry and despairing,
in the harvests we are sharing,
God's will is done.

For the harvests of the Spirit,
thanks be to God;
for the good we all inherit,
thanks be to God;
for the wonders that astound us,
for the truths that still confound us,
most of all that love has found us,
thanks be to God.

Gospel hymn: *God of hosts, you chose a vine

1: God of hosts, you chose a vine meant to bear the finest wine,
set it in a promised land,
nurtured by your careful hand:

2: Like a cedar, it grew strong deep its roots, its tendrils long;
yet, in envy those around stripped its branches to the ground.

3: Desolate, to God we cry:
'Spare us from the enemy!'
God of hosts, turn back again,
all such wickedness restrain:

4: Turn us too, for we have failed,
faithfulness has not prevailed;
visit, Lord, and heal your vine,
on its fruit let glory shine!

Gospel Reading: Matthew 20: 1-16 Janine Melville

Offertory Hymn: Eat this bread and never hunger

Refrain: *Eat this bread and never hunger, drink this cup and never thirst;
Christ invites us to the table
where the last become the first.*

Asking for a cup of water,
Jesus touched forbidden ground;
and the woman, with a question,
told the world what she had found. Refrain:

Walking down a desert highway,
Jesus healed a man born blind;
soon the man became a witness to the truth we seek and find. Refrain:

Weeping for his friend at graveside,
Jesus felt the pain of death;
yet he knew God's power to waken:
living water, living breath. Refrain:

Recessional hymn: Glory to God, the source of all our mission

1 Glory to God, the Source of all our mission;
Jesus be praised, the Saviour, and the Son!
Praise to the Spirit who confirms the vision;
in all the world the will of God be done!

2 Proud in our wealth, or destitute and broken,
we cannot live by earthly bread alone;
but by the word that God has truly spoken
we are set free to make our Teacher known.

3 Eastward or westward, northward, southward moving,
finding new fields, new patterns and new role, Christ's fellow-workers, grace and goodness proving,
see how our God is making people whole!

4 Linked by the cross at which we are forgiven,
joined by the love that came to find and save,
one in the hope of God's new earth and heaven,
we love and give since God first loved and gave.

5 Send us, O Christ, to serve at your direction,
dying and living, yours in loss and gain,
true to the Gospel of your resurrection,
working and praying till you come to reign.

Christopher Idle (adapted), Tune: LORD OF THE YEARS
