IMPORTANT HEALTH NOTICE: Our Diocese has directed parishes to refrain from the practice of intinction (dipping the wafer into the wine). For health reasons please co-operate with this requirement. Receiving the bread only is still regarded as a full expression of the sacrament, or you can simply hold or receive the chalice and then pass it back to the person serving. Intinction is less hygenic than the common cup.

Processional Hymn: O God beyond all praising

O God beyond all praising, we worship you today and sing the love amazing that songs cannot repay;
for we can only wonder at every gift you send,
at blessings without number and mercies without end:
we lift our hearts before you and wait upon your word,
we honour and adore you, our great and mighty Lord.

Then hear, O gracious Saviour, accept the love we bring,
that we who know your favour may serve you as our king;
and whether our tomorrows be filled with good or ill, we'll triumph through our sorrows and rise to bless you still:
to marvel at your beauty and glory in your ways,
and make a joyful duty our sacrifice of praise.

Words: Michael Perry (1942-1996), Tune: THAXTED

‘I will put my law in within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God and they shall be my people.’ Jeremiah 31.33

Collect: Let us pray for lives that bear the fruit of the Gospel:

God of Wheat and of Harvest,
you call us to follow you;
help us to bear fruit so that your love will flourish
and all will honour your name.
We make this prayer for your love’s sake.
Amen.

Gospel hymn: Lord Jesus for my sake you come

1: Lord Jesus, for my sake you come,
the Son of Man, and God most high,
you leave behind your Father's home
to live and serve, to love and die.

2: Your eyes seek out our world's distress
through insult, grief and agony;
they meet our tears with tenderness
yet blaze upon our blasphemy.

3: Are these the robes that make us proud,
is this the crown that you must wear?
your face is set, your head is bowed,
and silently you persevere.

4: You never grasped at selfish gain,
and yet your hands are marked with blood;
transfixed by nails, they cling in pain
to sorrow on a cross of wood.

5: O Jesus, come to me anew;
your hands, your eyes, your thoughts be mine,
until I learn to love like you and live on earth the life divine.

Michael Perry (1942 - 1996), Tune: ANGELUS

Gospel Reading: John 12: 20-33 Christine Kerr

Offertory Hymn Come, you thankful people, come

1: Come, you thankful people, come,
raise the song of harvest home!
fruit and crops are gathered in now, before the storms begin:
God our Maker will provide for our needs to be supplied;
come, into God's presence, come,
raise the song of harvest home!

2: All the world's a sacred field,
harvests for your praise to yield;
wheat and weeds together sown
here for joy or sorrow grown:
first the blade and then the ear,
then the full corn shall appear:
Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

3: For we know that you shall come and shall bring the harvest home;
from your field upon that day,
all offences purge away;
give your angels charge at last
in the fire the weeds to cast,
but the fruitful ears to store
in your care for evermore.

4: Even so, Lord, quickly come-bring your final harvest home!
gather all your people in
free from sorrow, free from sin,

Continued above...

there together purified,
ever thankful at your side:
come, with all your angels, come,
bring that glorious harvest home!

We share notices and news

Recessional Hymn: Sent forth by God's blessing

1: Sent forth by God's blessing,
our true faith confessing,
the people of God from this table take leave.
The supper is ended: may now be extended the fruits of our worship in all who believe.
The seed of Christ's teaching,
receptive souls reaching,
shal blossom in action for God and for all.
God's grace did invite us, and love shall unite us to work for God's kingdom and answer the call.

2: With praise and thanksgiving
to God, ever-living,
the tasks of our everyday life we will face,
our faith ever sharing, in love ever caring,
embracing God's children
of each tribe and race.
One feast that has fed us,
one light that has led us,
unite us as one in the life that we share.
Then may all the living,
with praise and thanksgiving
give honour to Christ as the name that we bear.

Omer Westendorf (alt.), tune: THE ASH GROVE

Charlotte Tattersall writes:

Throughout the month of March, I'm partaking in an event organised by a charity called "So They Can," along with the rest of the Year 12 Service Leaders. This charity aims to prevent young girls from Pokot in Kenya from marrying at a young age and experiencing FGM, by raising money and sending them to boarding school. The fundraiser requires us to walk, run, cycle, swim, dance etc 85Km over the month of March. It would be amazing if I could get a few sponsors? It doesn't have to be anything big. I've linked my fundraising page - just in case you feel like sponsoring me! <https://1humanrace.raisely.com/lottie-tattersall>
