Confession & Absolution

Sentence: You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor,
so that by his poverty you might become rich.

2 Corinthians 8:9

Collect: Let us pray that we may be wise stewards of God's goodness God our true wealth,
may we be faithful in things both small and great ,
and serve the needy and the poor,
so that finally we can be entrusted with your true riches;
through Jesus, the Christ, our Lord,
who is alive with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Reading: Amos 8: 4-7 Robin Gwynn

Psalm 113: Choir (Anglican Chant)

1 Whakamoemititia a Ihowā. / Praise the Lord.
O praise the Lord, you servants ' of the ' Lord:
O ' praise the ' name · of the ' Lord.
2 Blessèd be the ' name · of the ' Lord:
both ' now · and for ' ever'more.
3 The Lord's' name be ' praised:
from the ' rising · of the ' sun to its ' setting.
4 The Lord is high a'bove the ' nations:
and the glory of the ' Lord a'bove the ' heavens.
5 Who can be likened to the Lord our God,
who sits en'throned on ' high:
yet deigns to look ' down from ' heaven · to ' earth?
6 The Lord lifts the weak ' out · of the ' dust:
and raises the ' poor ' from the ' dung-heap,
7 to make them ' sit with ' princes:
with the ' princes ' of God's ' people.
8 The Lord gives the barren ' woman · a ' home:
and makes her the joyful mother of children.
Whaka'moemi'titia · a ' Ihowā. / O ' praise ' - the ' Lord.

Epistle reading: 1 Timothy 2: 1-7 Murray Mills

Gospel hymn: These hills where the hawk flies lonely

1. These hills where the hawk flies lonely, beaches where the long surf rolls, mountains where the snows meet heaven, these are our care.
Pastures where the sheep graze calmly, orchards where the apples grow, gardens where the roses cluster, these are our prayer.

Forests where the tree ferns tower, rivers running strong and clear, oceans where the great whales wander, these are our care.
Race meeting race as equals, justice for age-old wrong,
worth for every man and woman, these are our prayer.

Cities where the young roam restless, lives brought to deep despair, homeless and powerless people, these are our care.
Places where the Word is spoken, hands held in serving love, faiths of our many cultures, these are our prayer.

All that the old world gave us, all that the new world brings,
language, ideas and customs, these are our care.
Life finding joy and value, faith seeking truth and light,
God hear and seen in all things, this be our prayer.

THE MINISTRY OF THE SACRAMENT

NZPB page: 485 The Peace

Jacqui Chesley-Ingles

We greet the people near us, saying 'Peace be with you' or 'Kia tau te rangimarie'.

*During the next hymn the bread and wine, symbols of Christ's life, are brought to the altar; donations to the Food Bank are presented,
and our offerings of money to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral are collected, along with pledges made via electronic banking.*

Offertory Hymn: Put peace into each other's hands

Put peace into each other's hands
And like a treasure hold it,
Protect it like a candle flame,
With tenderness enfold it.

Put peace into each other's hands
With loving expectation;
Be gentle in your words and ways,
In touch with God's creation.

Put peace into each other's hands
Like bread we break for sharing;
Look people warmly in the eye:
Our life is meant for caring.

Give thanks for strong - yet tender hands,
Held out in trust and blessing.
Where words fall short, let hands speak out,
The heights of love expressing.

Reach out in friendship, stay with faith in touch with those around you.
Put peace into each other's hands:
the peace that sought and found you.

Words: Fred Kaan, Tune: ST. COLUMBA

The Choir sing the Agnus Dei whilst the communion assistants receive communion; then the Choir move to the altar rails to receive communion; then all are welcome to share the bread and wine of Christ's life, or to receive a blessing - please come to the altar rails via the centre aisle and return to your seats via the side aisles (or use the ramp if necessary and take a place at the rear altar rail). Christians of any tradition and all seeking God are welcome at our Lord's table.

Please advise an usher if you need to have communion served in your seat
