PRAYERFUL SILENCE BEFORE THE SERVICE BEGINS IS A DISCIPLINE THAT ALLOWS ALL TO PREPARE FOR WORSHIP

8.00am Eucharist (Aotearoa Chapel) Dean Ian Render

10.00am Choral Eucharist with Hukarere kura.

Presider: The Rev'd Jacqui Chesley-Ingles

Preacher: Dean Ian Render

Liturgist: Christine Kerr

Director of Music: Anthony Tattersall with the Waiapu Cathedral Choir

Introit: Ka waiata– Puanaki

Choral setting: Mass for Hukarere

Communion Anthem: music by Hukarere College

Today is celebrated variously, but in New Zealand, since 1980, as "Aotearoa Sunday". This is particularly significant for Waiapu and this Cathedral, because of the milestone event of the ordination here of the first bishop for Maori, Frederick Augustus Bennett.

At the time some were insisting that a bishop for Maori should be pākeha! "The eventual solution was a classic Anglican compromise: the creation of a titular bishopric with no territorial jurisdiction. On 2 December 1928 Frederick Bennett was consecrated as Bishop of Aotearoa in Napier Cathedral. As assistant to the Bishop of Waiapu, he ministered to Māori throughout the country under licence from diocesan bishops, many of whom opposed this arrangement."

Today we also give thanks for the work of the current Pihopa o Aotearoa, the Rt. Rev'd Don Tamihere, Archbishop, and we are glad to celebrate today with students from Hukarere kura.

Please ensure all cellphones are set to silent when in the Cathedral; and, if necessary, adjust hearing aids to the "Loop" system.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN: Where mountains rise

Where mountains rise to open skies
your name, O God, is echoed far, from island beach to kauri's reach,
in water's light, in lake and star.

Your people's heart, your people's part be in our caring for this land, for faith to flower, for aroha to let each other's mana stand.

From broken word, from conflict stirred, from lack of vision, set us free to see the line of your design, to feel creation's energy.

Your love be known, compassion shown,
that every child have equal scope:
in justice done, in trust begun shall be our heritage and hope.

Where mountains rise to open skies
your way of peace distil the air, your spirit bind all humankind,
one covenant of life to share.

THE COLLECT FOR AOTEAROA SUNDAY:

Let us pray that our history may guide and deepen our unity:

Jesus of Nazareth, Saviour,

o te whakapapa o Rawiri, inspire Te Pihopatanga o Aotearoa.

Bless all who serve the church in this land, and give us new taonga to add to what we have;

a plentiful harvest to follow the planting. Amen.

A waiata is sung:

E te Ariki,

whakarongo mai ra kia matou.

E te Ariki,

titiro mai ra kia matou.

Tenei matou o tamariki,

E whakopono ana matou ki a koe,

Aue, aue.

Te Matua, Te Tamaiti, Wairua Tapu e.

Te Matua, Te Tamaiti, Wairua Tapu e.

Translation not for singing:

O God, listen to the cry of your children.

O God, see the plight of your children.

We greet the people near us, saying 'Peace be with you' or 'Kia tau te rangimarie'.

The Offertory Hymn (see over)

*During the next hymn the bread and wine, symbols of Christ's life, are brought to the altar;
our offerings of money and food to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral are collected.*

THE OFFERTORY HYMN: These hills where the hawk flies lonely

These hills where the hawk flies lonely, beaches where the long surf rolls, mountains where the snows reach heaven,
these are our care.

Pastures where the sheep graze calmly, orchards where the apples grow, gardens where the roses cluster,
these are our prayer.

Forests where the tree ferns tower, rivers running strong and clear, oceans where the great whales wander,
these are our care.

Race meeting race as equals,
justice for age-old wrong,
worth for every man and woman,
these are our prayer.

Cities where the young roam restless, lives brought to deep despair,
homeless and powerless people,
these are our care.

Places where the Word is spoken, hands held in serving love,
faiths of our many cultures,
these are our prayer.

All that the old world gave us,
all that the new world brings,
language, ideas and customs,
these are our care.

Life finding joy and value,
faith seeking truth and light,
God heard and seen in all things,
this be our prayer.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The service continues on page four of the order of service (inner left page)

RECESSIONAL HYMN: Arahina e Ihowa

Arahina, e Ihowa.
To pononga i te ao
whakakitea mai tou kaha, puritia ra au e koe.
A whangainga, A whangainga ki te kai e ora ai, ki te kai e ora ai

*Guide, O Jehovah
your servant in the world:
reveal your power
let me be held by you.
Feed me
with food to sustain me.*

Whakahekea mai te puna
hei horoi mo te hara;
tukua ko te kapua mura
hei arahi i ahau;
tenei hoki, tenei hoki
whakakahangia e koe;
whakakahangia e koe.

*Let the well overflow
to wash away the sin;
send forth a cloud of fire
to lead me.
Now
strengthen me.*

Whakamamakia e koe
to te mate takiwa;
whakawhitia to pononga
i nga wai o Horano;
Whakauria, whakauria
ki te wa o Kenana,
ki te wa o Kenana. Amine.

*Take the burden
all sufferings everywhere.
Carry your servant
across the waters of Jordan and place me
in the land of Canaan.
Amen.*
