Processional Hymn: This is my song, O God of all the nations

This is my song, O God of all the nations,
A song of peace for lands afar and mine.
This is my home, the country where my heart is;
Here are my hopes, my dreams, my sacred shrine.
But other hearts in other lands are beating,
With hopes and dreams as true and high as mine.

2. My country's skies are bluer than the ocean,
And sunlight beams on cloverleaf and vine.
But other lands have sunlight too and clover,
And skies are everywhere as blue as mine.
O hear my song, true God of all the nations,
A song of peace for their land and for mine.

3. This is my prayer, O Sovereign of earth's kingdoms:
Your kingdom come; on earth your will be done.
Let Christ be lifted up till all shall know him,
And hearts united learn to live as one.
O hear my prayer, true God of all the nations;
Myself I give you, let your will be done.

Collect: Let us pray that our lives may bear fruit for the Gospel of Christ:
Holy God,
merciful and patient over all creation,
your Son confronts our casual and fruitless ways:
fire our hearts with compassion;
quicken our minds against deceit and shallowness;
strengthen our wills to resist evil and follow Christ;
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever.
Amen

We greet the people near us, saying ‘Peace be with you’ or ‘Kia tau te rangimarie’.

*During the next hymn the bread and wine, symbols of Christ’s life,
are brought to the altar;
donations to the Food Bank are presented,
and our offerings of money
to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral are collected, along with pledges made via electronic banking.*

Offertory Hymn: These hills where the hawk flies lonely

These hills where the hawk flies lonely,
beaches where the long surf rolls,
mountains where the snows reach heaven,
these are our care.

Pastures where the sheep graze calmly,
orchards where the apples grow,
gardens where the roses cluster,
these are our prayer.

Places where the Word is spoken,
hands held in serving love,
faiths of our many cultures,
these are our prayer.

Forests where the tree ferns tower,
rivers running strong and clear,
oceans where the great whales wander,
these are our care.

All that the old world gave us,
all that the new world brings,
language, ideas and customs,
these are our care.

Race meeting race as equals,
justice for age-old wrong,
worth for every man and woman,
these are our prayer.

Life finding joy and value,
faith seeking truth and light,
God heard and seen in all things,
this be our prayer.

Cities where the young roam restless,
lives brought to deep despair,
homeless and powerless people,
these are our care.

We share notices and news

Recessional Hymn: Too often, God, your name is used

Too often, God, your name is used to sanction hate and fear, so love and justice are refused to people you hold dear.
O never let us use your name to harm or hurt or kill or consecrate a vicious aim as your almighty will.

continued overleaf

2. But move through us in deeds that spell your name as Love and Light, for faithful actions far excel beliefs that we recite.

Let naming you through how we live become our public creed: the clearest witness we can give is meeting human need.

3. And keep us ready to receive the good that others do, that helps expand what we believe and why we trust in you. For where deep love and justice meet we see anew your face and for a moment glimpse complete the world transformed by grace.

4. That vision opens wide the church to look beyond its walls, to honour all who ask and search for where your Spirit calls. Their questions and their won-der-ing help us more fully claim our mission as an offer-ing that glorifies your name.

- Thomas H. Troeger Tune: KINGSFOLD

Dismissal: Grace be with you.

Thanks be to God.

Go in peace.

Amen. We go in the name of Christ.
