Processional Hymn: I have a dream

I have a dream that people will be free -
no longer prey to greed and tyranny;
where structures of oppression will fall down,
and seeds of justice on this earth are sown.
I dream a world where all can live as one;
where love is known, God's will is surely done.

I have a dream that children will be fed,
both young and old receive their daily bread,
a home be found for every refugee,
all humankind know greater dignity.
I dream a world where deeds of love are found and acts of kindness everywhere abound.

I have a dream that valleys will arise
and hills and mountains fall before our eyes, where rough is smoothed and crooked places straight
when Christ shall reign, and love replaces hate.
I dream the fears that tear us all apart
shall be dissolved by love within each heart.

I have a dream that knows the lasting worth of every person living on this earth,
but dreams will fade like mists in morning sun
without the will to see that right is done - so, wide awake, I seek the just and true, that all God's children might receive their due.

Sentence: Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

Matthew 4.23

Collect: Let us pray for readiness to follow the call of Jesus:

Living God,
your Son Jesus Christ called those who were fishing to follow him.
Embolden us to lay aside everything that distracts us.
Give us focus and resolve to follow you.
Through Jesus Christ our leader and guide,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Choir Psalm: 27: 1, 4-9 NZPB (text may be found on p. 225)

Reading: 1 Corinthians 1: 10-18 Dawn Harvey

Gospel Hymn: You walk along our shoreline

1. You walk along our shoreline
When land meets unknown sea.
We hear your voice of power,
“Now come and follow me.
And if you still will follow
Through storm and wave and shoal,
Then I will make you fishers
But of the human soul.”

2. You call us, Christ, to gather
The people of the earth.
We cannot fish for only
Those lives we think have worth.
We spread your net of gospel
Across the water’s face,
Our boat a common shelter
For all found by your grace.

3. We cast our net, O Jesus;
We cry the kingdom’s name;
We work for love and justice;
We learn to hope through pain.
You call us, Lord, to gather
God’s daughters and God’s sons,
To let your judgment heal us
So that all may be one.

THE MINISTRY OF THE SACRAMENT

NZPB page: 466 The Peace

We greet the people near us, saying 'Peace be with you' or 'Kia tau te rangimarie'.

*During the next hymn the bread and wine, symbols of Christ's life, are brought to the altar; donations to the Food Bank and knitwear are presented,
and our offerings of money
to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral are collected, along with pledges made via electronic banking.*

Offertory Hymn: Summoned by the God who made us

Summoned by the God who made us rich in our diversity, gathered in the name of Jesus, richer still in unity.
Let us bring the gifts that differ and, in splendid, varied ways, sing a new church into being, one in faith and love and praise.

Radiant risen from the water, robed in holiness and light,
Human beings in God's image, rainbow people, God's delight.
Let us bring the gifts that differ...

Trust the goodness of creation; trust the Spirit strong within.
Dare to dream the vision promised, sprung from seed of what has been.
Let us bring the gifts that differ...

Bring the hopes of every nation; bring the art of every race.
Weave a song of peace and justice; let it sound through time and space.
Let us bring the gifts that differ...

Draw together at one table, all the human family;
shape a circle ever wider and a people ever free.

NZPB page: 466-472 THE GREAT THANKSGIVING & THE INVITATION

The Choir sing the Agnus Dei whilst the communion assistants receive communion; then the Choir move to the altar rails to receive communion; then all who seek Christ in the sacrament are welcome to share the bread and wine of Christ's life, or to receive a blessing - please come to the altar rails via the centre aisle and return to your seats via the side aisles (or use the ramp if necessary and take a place at the rear altar rail). Christians of any tradition and all seeking God are welcome at our Lord's table.

Please advise an usher if you need to have communion served in your seat

We share notices and news

Recessional hymn: The kingdom of God is justice and joy

The kingdom of God is justice and joy,
For Jesus restores what sin would destroy.
God's power and glory in Jesus we know,
And here and hereafter the kingdom shall grow.

The kingdom of God is mercy and grace;
The captives are freed, the sinners find place.
The outcasts are welcomed God's banquet to share,
And hope is awakened in place of despair.

The kingdom of God is challenge and choice;
Believe the good news, repent and rejoice!
His love for us sinners brought Christ to His cross,
Our crisis of judgment for gain or for loss.

God's kingdom is come, the gift and the goal-
In Jesus begun, in heaven made whole.
The heirs of the kingdom shall answer His call,
And all things cry, "Glory!" to God All-in-all.

Bryn Rees (1911-1983). Tune: HANOVER (CP #591)

Dismissal: Grace be with you. Thanks be to God.

Go in peace. Amen. We go in the name of Christ.

Organ Voluntary

You are invited to join us for a cup of tea and coffee served at the back of the Cathedral following the 10.00am service.

Cathedral Keys

We are currently undertaking a security review in the Cathedral, and need to establish what access key holders have in the Cathedral. To support us, all key holders needs to please return their keys to Amy in the office or Ian after the service. Keys will be reallocated on a needed basis.

Please also advise us of any known outstanding keys that are being held by people not with the Cathedral any longer.
