Presider: Dean Ian Render

Choral Setting: Darke in F Introit: O sing Joyfully – Batten
Communion Motet: – Ave Verum – Byrd

Opening Hymn: I have a dream

I have a dream that people will be free - no longer prey to greed and tyranny;
where structures of oppression will fall down,
and seeds of justice on this earth are sown.
I dream a world where all can live as one;
where love is known, God's will is surely done.

I have a dream that children will be fed,
both young and old receive their daily bread,
a home be found for every refugee,
all humankind know greater dignity.
I dream a world where deeds of love are found and acts of kindness everywhere abound.

I have a dream that valleys will arise
and hills and mountains fall before our eyes, where rough is smoothed and crooked places straight when Christ shall reign, and love replaces hate.
I dream the fears that tear us all apart shall be dissolved by love within each heart.

I have a dream that knows the lasting worth of every person living on this earth, (Cont. overleaf)

but dreams will fade like mists in morning sun without the will to see that right is done-so, wide awake, I seek the just and true, that all God's children might receive their due.

Sentence: Jesus read from the prophet Isaiah: 'The Spirit of the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives.'

Luke 4.18

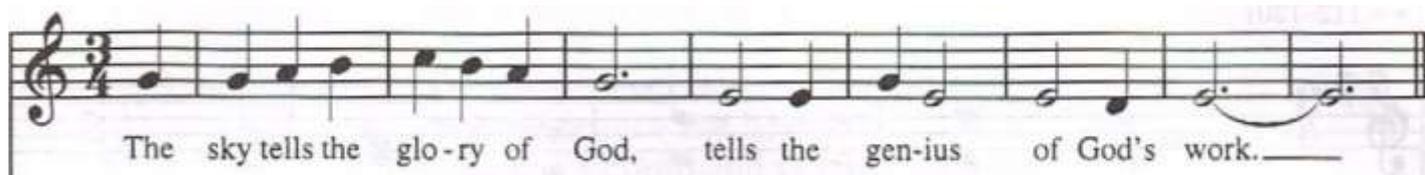

Collect: Faithful and compassionate God, Jesus was not received in his home town
and still we fail to recognise you:
grant us hearts and minds receptive to your word;
and give us the love and will to serve you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord who lives and reigns with you,
In the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings: Nehemiah 8: 1-3, 5-6, 8-10

Dawn Harvey

NZPB Page: 216 Psalm 19

Choir sings the response, then all repeat. Response follows each verse, in unison

The sky tells the glory of God, tells the genius of God's work.
Day carries the news to day,
night brings the message to night,
Response
without a word, without a sound,
without a voice being heard,
and yet their message fills the world,
their news reaches its rim.
Response

There God has pitched a tent
for the sun to rest and rise renewed like a bridegroom rising from bed,
an athlete eager to run a race.
Response
It springs from the edge of the earth, runs a course across the sky
to win the race at heaven's end.
Nothing on earth escaped its heat.

Gospel Hymn: Welcome Jesus, you are welcome

1. Welcome, Jesus, you are welcome
in this world made hard by fear;
loving reach us, living teach us,
Jesus, you are welcome here.

2. Welcome, Jesus, you are welcome
in the ghettos we have made;
give the tattered, bruised, and battered winter shelter, summer shade.

3. Welcome, Jesus, you are welcome
with the wealthy and the poor;
give the broken love unspoken,
open wide each prison door.

4. Welcome, Jesus, you are welcome.
Let your loving light appear.
In our seeing, in our being,
Jesus, you are welcome here.

Offertory Hymn: Hidden Christ, alive forever

1. Hidden Christ, alive for ever, Saviour, Servant, Friend and Lord, year by year, unseen, you offer
life undying, love outpoured.
Day by day, you walk among us,
known and honored, yet concealed,
freeing, chiding, leading, guiding,
till your glory is revealed.

2. Endless orbits by our planet spinning round its speeding star cannot trace creation's secret:
why we live, and whose we are. (cont.)

Jesus, you alone uncover nature's rhythm, reason, rhyme,
so your birthday is our centre:
hinge of history and time.

3. Still your life and way of living,
God-revealing, Spirit-blown,
teaching, healing, sins forgiving,
measure and inspire our own;
loving earth's despised, rejected,
till with them you hang in pain,
broken, buried, resurrected,
life laid down, our life to gain. (over)

Dismissal: Go now to love and serve the Lord. Go in peace.
Amen. We go in the name of Christ.

You are invited to join us for a cup of tea and coffee served at the back of the Cathedral following the 10.00am service.
