What is a saint? Our response is likely to be "Someone a lot more holy than me!" But the saints are those people, commemorated or not, who have lived out their faith in love and borne witness to Christ, their leader and guide. We celebrate them because they are alive with us in the life of God. Let us rejoice as we remember those who have walked the Way with us and who now rest in the nearer presence of God. There is also a special service of remembrance today in partnership with Dunstall's Funeral Services at 5.00pm.

Ormond Chapel

Services are held on the second Sunday of every month.

*Please ensure all cellphones are set to silent when in the Cathedral;
and, if necessary, adjust hearing aids to the "Loop" system.*

Hymns reproduced with permission under CCLI Licence #504995

PROCESSIONAL HYMN: Sing for God's glory

Sing for God's glory that colours the dawn of creation,
racing across the sky, trailing bright clouds of elation;
sun of delight follows the velvet of night,
warming the earth's exultation.

Sing for God's power that shatters the chains that would bind us,
searing the darkness of fear and despair that could blind us,
touching our shame with love that will not lay blame,
reaching out gently to find us.

Sing for God's justice disturbing each easy illusion,
tearing down tyrants and putting our pride to confusion;
lifeblood of right, stands against evil and slight,
offering freedom's transfusion.

Sing for God's saints who have travelled faith's journey before us,
who in our weariness give us their hope to restore us;
in them we see the new creation to be,
Spirit of love made flesh for us.

who is alive with you and the Holy Spirit,

GOSPEL HYMN: When we are living, we are in the Lord

When we are living we are in the Lord,
and when we're dying we are in the Lord.
For in our living and in our dying
we belong to God, we belong to God.

Each day allows us to decide for good,
loving and serving as we know we should.
In thankful giving, in hopeful living,
we belong to God, we belong to God.

Sometimes we sorrow, other times embrace,
sometimes we question everything we face.
Yet in our yearning is deeper learning,
we belong to God, we belong to God.

'Til earth is over may we always know
love never fails us, God has made it so.
Hard times will prove us, never remove us,
we belong to God, we belong to God.

We greet the people near us, saying 'Peace be with you' or 'Kia tau te rangimarie'.

The organ introduces the Offertory Hymn and the bread and wine, symbols of Christ's life, are brought to the altar; donations to the Food Bank are presented, and our offerings of money to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral are collected, along with pledges made via electronic banking

OFFERTORY HYMN: O Christ, at your first Eucharist

O Christ, at your first Eucharist you prayed that all your church might be for ever one;
at every Eucharist this prayer is made
with longing heart and soul 'Your will be done':
O may we all one bread, one body be
through this blessed sacrament of unity.

For all your church, in faith, we intercede
that you will make our sad divisions cease:
O draw us nearer each to each, we plead,
by drawing all to you, the Prince of Peace.
Thus may we all one bread, one body be
through this blessed sacrament of unity.

We pray for those who wander from your fold:
O bring them back, great Shepherd of the sheep –
back to the faith which saints believed of old,
the faith for all your holy church to keep.
Soon may we all one bread, one body be
through this blessed sacrament of unity.

So, Lord, at length when sacraments shall cease,
may we be one with all your church above;
one with your saints in one unbroken peace,
one with your saints in one unbounded love:
far happier then, in peace and love to be one with the Trinity in Unity!

Words: William Turton: Jubilate hymns version

RECESSIONAL HYMN: Give thanks for life

Give thanks for life,
the measure of our days,
mortal, we pass through
beauty that decays,
yet sing to God our hope, our love, our praise, Alleluia!
Alleluia!

Give thanks for those
who made their life a light
caught from the Christ-flame,
bursting through the night,
who touched the truth, who burned for what is right, Alleluia!
Alleluia!

And for our own, our living
and our dead,
thanks for the love by which our life is fed,
a love not changed by time
or death or dread,
Alleluia!
Alleluia!

Give thanks for hope,
that like the wheat, the grain
lying in darkness does its life retain,
in resurrection
to grow green again.

Alleluia!

Alleluia!

Shirley Erena Murray after G W Kitchin

Once again we are partnering with Dunstall's Funeral Services to welcome all who want to participate in a service of remembrance at 5.00pm. All names offered will be read aloud at that service. If you have friends who are struggling with bereavement, this is an appropriate opportunity to invite them along.
