Processional Hymn: Praise with joy the world's Creator

Praise with joy the world's Creator,
God of justice, love, and peace,
source and end of human knowledge,
Force of greatness without cease.
Celebrate the Maker's glory,
power to rescue and release.

2. Praise to Christ who feeds the hungry,
frees the captive, finds the lost,
heals the sick, upsets religion,
fearless both of fate and cost.
Celebrate Christ's constant presence:
friend and stranger, guest and host.

3. Praise the Spirit sent among us,
liberating truth from pride,
forging bonds where race or gender,
age or nation dare divide.
Celebrate the Spirit's treasure:
foolishness none dare deride.

4. Praise the Maker, Christ, and Spirit,
one God in community,
calling Christians to embody
oneness and diversity.
Thus the world shall yet believe, when Shown Christ's vibrant unity.

Sentence: God has reconciled us to himself through Christ,
and given us the ministry of reconciliation. 2 Corinthians 5.18

Collect: God our Father, faithful and loving,
though we lose our way you seek us and call us back:
Give us the courage to face our faults;
Help us to repent, reconcile, and amend our ways
that we may find our peace
through Jesus Christ our Lord;
who lives and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reading: Joshua 5:9-12 Jonathon Krebs

Hymn for Psalm 32: How blest are the people

How blest are the people possessing true peace,
in humble repentance sad hearts find release;
Christ's death has accomplished forgiveness within,
his goodness a garment to cover their sin.

2. How blest are the people receiving God's grace,
they know that the LORD is a safe hiding place;
whose strength is protection when troubles are long,
and power in deliverance the theme of their song.

3. How blest are the people desiring to learn,
who pray God will guide them with ways to discern that trials are means for God's kindness to prove that they are surrounded with mercy and love.

4. How blest are the people believing God's Word,
who live by the Spirit of their risen Lord;
by indwelling presence their heav'n is begun,
and joyful their praises to God, Three-in-One!

Gospel Hymn: In what strange land?

In what strange land will I sing your song, O God, my God?
To what new code must my heart belong, O God, my God?
The boundaries shift as the lines delete,
and the way back home is a tired beat:
there are new directions to take my feet
to follow you.

With what new eyes will I see your hand, O God, my God?
By what new chart will I understand, O God, my God?
The old worlds wither away and die;
your new creation is like the sky,
with new found galaxies spinning by,
which dazzle me.

You test my faith in a different sphere, O God, my God.
You guide the cursor that brings me here, O God, my God?
For childhood things keep me in the past,
remembered hymns that still hold me fast,
familiar words that were meant to last
and sing along.

You put a new song into my mouth, O God, my God.
You lift my spirit to touch your truth, O God, my God;
you give me bread when I fear a stone,
you do not leave me to walk alone,
my heart will trust in your heart's unknown,
O God, my God.

how sweet the sound
that saved a wretch like me;
I once was lost, but now am found,
was blind, but now I see.

2. 'Twas grace that taught

and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear,
the hour I first believed!

3. Through many dangers,
toils and snares
I have already come;
'tis grace that brought me

and grace will lead me home.

4. The Lord has promised good to me,

as long as life endures.

Repeat verse one.

Our shared journey for Lent 2019

As churches in Napier we are each hosting a 7.00pm service for reflection and penitence during Lent:

3 April: St. Andrew's Anglican Church, Westshore

10 April: St. Paul's Presbyterian Church

Dean Ian writes: Our AGM was well-attended and the motions offered to the meeting were all passed unanimously after careful discussion. This means that we can now seek faculties from the Diocese, particularly for removing an extra row of pews from the front of the Nave, moving the organ console to floor level near the choir, and making the current Choir position permanent. This latter arrangement will still leave the area flexible depending on the occasion. Thanks to all who were able to attend and for your diligence and care.
