

Waiapu Cathedral of St John the Evangelist

ORDER OF SERVICE - 21 JUNE 2020 -
ORDINARY SUNDAY 21 — MATARIKI

Welcome to all who are worshipping here today. Children are most welcome.

We seek to be an inclusive congregation: Nau mai, haere mai tatou katoa.

This morning's service follows the Eucharistic Liturgy 'Thanksgiving of the People of God, commencing on page 404 in the New Zealand Prayer Book.

Congregational responses are in bold type.

The congregation remain seated while the choir sing an Introit from the baptistery, then all stand to sing the Processional Hymn (overleaf).

PRAYERFUL SILENCE BEFORE THE SERVICE BEGINS IS A DISCIPLINE
THAT ALLOWS ALL TO PREPARE FOR WORSHIP

IMPORTANT HEALTH NOTICE: Our Diocese has recently directed parishes to refrain from the practice of intinction (dipping the wafer into the wine). For health reasons please co-operate with this requirement. Receiving the bread only is still regarded as a full expression of the sacrament, or you can simply hold or receive the chalice and then pass it back to the person serving. Intinction is less hygienic than the common cup.

Processional Hymn: For the fruits of all creation

1 For the fruit of all creation,
thanks be to God.
For these gifts to every nation,
thanks be to God.
For the plowing, sowing, reaping,
silent growth while we are sleeping,
future needs in earth's safekeeping,
thanks be to God.

2 In the just reward of labour,
God's will is done.
In the help we give our neighbour,
God's will is done.
In our worldwide task of caring for the hungry and despairing,
in the harvests we are sharing,
God's will is done.

3 For the harvests of the Spirit,
thanks be to God.
For the good we all inherit,
thanks be to God.
For the wonders that astound us,
for the truths that still confound us,
most of all, that love has found us,
thanks be to God.

Sentence: What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. (Matthew 10:27)

Collect: Let us pray that we may dwell confidently in God's care:

God, whose embrace of care reaches out to all,
even a sparrow is protected by you.

By your Spirit, imprint upon our hearts the teaching of Jesus,
that because we belong to you,
no one can pluck us from your hand;
and because we fear you,
we need fear no other.

We make this prayer for your love's sake.

Amen.

Reading: Jeremiah 20: 7-13

Anthem: Peace is flowing like a river (The Children's choir)

Epistle reading: Romans 6:1b-11

Gospel hymn: Come, faithful pilgrims all

1: Come, faithful pilgrims all,
give God the glory.
let all who hear the call
tell out the story:
how Israel was set free
from Egypt's tyranny,
and then was called to be
a pilgrim people.

2: Out on the desert way,
in all its starkness,
faith led them through the day,
and lit their darkness.
No written guarantee,
no easy certainty,
just God's great call to be
a pilgrim people.

3: Let all the world rejoice
in exultation;
let every silent voice
sing of salvation.
Loose all the chains that bind,
set free both heart and mind,
and make all humankind
a pilgrim people.

Michael Forster, Tune: MONK'S GATE

Gospel Reading: Matthew 10:24-39 Jennifer Harris

THE MINISTRY OF THE SACRAMENT

NZPB page: 419 The Peace

Dean Ian Render

We greet the people near us, saying 'Peace be with you' or 'Kia tau te rangimarie'.

At this time you may prefer to refrain from physical contact. If you do choose to shake hands or embrace someone, please use the hand sanitiser if you are going to receive communion.

During the next hymn the bread and wine, symbols of Christ's life, are brought to the altar; donations to the Food Bank are presented, and our offerings of money to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral are collected, along with pledges made via electronic banking.

We sing the Lord's Prayer in Te Reo

Offertory Hymn: In what strange land

1: In what strange land will I sing your song, O God, my God?
To what new code must my heart belong, O God, my God?
The boundaries shift as the lines delete,
and the way back home is a tired beat:
there are new directions to take my feet to follow you.

2: With what new eyes will I see your hand, O God, my God?
By what new chart will I understand, O God, my God?
The old worlds wither away and die;
your new creation is like the sky,
with new found galaxies spinning by,
which dazzle me. (continued)

3: You test my faith in a different sphere, O God, my God.
You guide the cursor that brings me here, O God, my God.
For childhood things keep me in the past,
remembered hymns that still hold me fast,
familiar words that were meant to last
and sing along.

4: You put a new song into my mouth, O God, my God.
You lift my spirit to touch your truth, O God, my God;
you give me bread when I fear a stone,
you do not leave me to walk alone,
my heart will trust in your heart's unknown.
O God, my God.

Shirley Erena Murray – Tune: MYSTERIUM Colin Gibson HIOS #77

NZPB page: 419-427 THE GREAT THANKSGIVING & THE INVITATION

*Christians of any tradition and all seeking God are welcome at our Lord's table.
Please advise an usher if you need to have communion served in your seat. You are welcome to request a blessing if you prefer not to receive the Sacrament.
During Communion the Children's Choir sing "Give Thanks"*

Post-communion hymn: (For Matariki) 'Tis winter now

1: 'Tis winter now; the fallen snow
has left the heavens all coldly clear;
through leafless boughs the sharp winds blow,
and all the earth lies dead and drear.

2: And yet Your love is not withdrawn;
for life within the keen air breathes;
your beauty paints the crimson dawn,
each branch is clothed with glittering wreaths.

3: And though abroad the sharp winds blow,
and skies are chill, and frosts are keen,
home closer draws her circle now,
and warmer glows her light within.

4: O God, you give the winter's cold,
as well as summer's joyous rays,
you warmly in your love enfold,
and keep us through life's wintry days. Samuel Longfellow (adap.), Tune: O WALY WALY

We share notices and news

Recessional Hymn: We are many, we are one

1: We are many, we are one,
and the work of Christ is done
when we learn to live in true community,
as the stars that fill the night,
as a flock of birds in flight,
as the cluster of the grapes upon the vine;
as the branches of a tree,
as the waves upon the sea,
as the cluster of the grapes upon the vine.

2: All division is made whole
when we honour every soul,
find the life of God in every you and me,
as the fingers of a hand,
as the grains that form the sand,
as the cluster of the grapes upon the vine;
as the threads upon a loom,
as a field of flowers in bloom,
as the cluster of the grapes upon the vine.

3: We will join creation's song,
make a world where all belong,
build as one in peace and loving harmony,
as the voices of a choir,
as the flames within a fire,
as the cluster of the grapes upon the vine;
as the snowflakes in the snow,
as the colours of a bow,
as the cluster of the grapes upon the vine.

Notices

Dean Ian writes: A sincere thankyou to everyone for their support for our efforts to maintain worship during lockdown, and particularly to those who reached out to those isolated during the weeks of Level 2. It was a steep learning curve for everyone but we discovered the value of Zoom for services and meetings (and definitely improved as we went along!). Zoom meant that we were catering for a number of non-parishioners who appreciated our offering. Now we are hoping that a live-stream will be available soon for those who might not be able to get to church, especially during the winter months.
