

Waiapu Cathedral of St John the Evangelist

ORDER OF SERVICE - 01 NOVEMBER 2020

ALL SAINTS DAY

Welcome to all who are worshipping here today. Children are most welcome.

We seek to be an inclusive congregation: Nau mai, haere mai tatou katoa.

This morning's service follows the Eucharistic Liturgy 'Thanksgiving of the People of God, commencing on page 404 in the New Zealand Prayer Book.

Congregational responses are in bold type.

The congregation remains seated as the choir sings the Introit.

PRAYERFUL SILENCE before the service begins is a discipline that allows all to prepare for worship

Preacher: The Rev'd Erice Fairbrother

IMPORTANT HEALTH NOTICE: Our Diocese has directed parishes to refrain from the practice of intinction (dipping the wafer into the wine). For health reasons please co-operate with this requirement. Receiving the bread only is still regarded as a full expression of the sacrament, or you can simply hold or receive the chalice and then pass it back to the person serving. Intinction is less hygienic than the common cup

Processional Hymn:

Sing of the saints, who were loved and made beautiful,
chosen to show us the richness of grace,
gentle, disturbing, determined and dutiful,
calling us onwards and setting the pace.

Sisters and brothers in endless variety,
each with a marvellous story to share,
reach their full stature in heaven's society,
grown from the seed by God's infinite care.

Love raised them up from confusion and vanity,
helped them withdraw from addiction to sin,
entered their hearts and released their humanity,
claimed as its own all the treasures within.

See how they followed with joy and tenacity,
Christ was their vision, all else cast aside;
giving their lives in transparent simplicity,
ready to suffer and stand at his side.

Long may their stories, alive in our history,
fill us with hope by their failings and powers
pointing the way to the heart of the mystery,
drawing us closer to their God and ours.

Collect: Let us pray that we may be united with the saints of God:

Almighty God,
your saints are one with you
in the mystical body of Christ;
give us the grace of your Spirit to follow them
in all virtue and holiness

which you have prepared for those who truly love you;
Through Jesus Christ, our Way,
Our Truth, and our Life. Amen.

*We greet the people near us, saying ‘Peace be with you’ or ‘Kia tau te rangimarie’.
At this time you may prefer to refrain from physical contact. If you do choose to shake hands or embrace someone, please use the hand sanitiser if you are going to receive communion.*

*During the next hymn the bread and wine, symbols of Christ’s life, are brought to the altar;
donations to the Food Bank are presented, and our offerings of money

Offertory Hymn: Bright the vision that delighted

1: Bright the vision that delighted once the sight of Judah's seer;
sweet the countless tongues united
to entrance the prophet's ear.

2: Round the Lord in glory seated,
cherubim and seraphim
filled his temple and repeated
each to each the alternate hymn:

3: 'Lord, your glory fills the heaven,
earth is with its fulness stored;
unto you be glory given:
Holy, holy, holy Lord!'

4: Heaven is still with glory ringing,
earth takes up the angels' cry:
'Holy, holy, holy' singing,
'Lord of hosts, the Lord most high!'

5: With his seraphim before him,
with his holy church below,
thus united, we adore him,
let our glorious anthem flow:

6: 'Lord, your glory fills the heaven,
earth is with its fulness stored;
unto you be glory given:
Holy, holy, holy Lord!'

We share notices and news

Recessional hymn: For all the saints who've shown your love

1: For all the saints who've shown your love,
in how they live and where they move.
For mindful women, caring men,
accept our gratitude again.

2: For all the saints who loved your name,
whose faith increased the Saviour's fame.
Who sang your songs and shared your word,
accept our gratitude, good Lord.

3: For all the saints who named your will,
and showed the kingdom coming still.
Through selfless protest, prayer and praise,
accept the gratitude we raise.

4: Bless all whose will or name or love
reflects the grace of heaven above.
Though unacclaimed by earthly powers,
your life through theirs has hallowed ours.

Words: John Bell / Graham Maule, Tune: DUNEDIN AA#155

THE COMMISSIONING OF THE COMMUNITY

Haere i runga i te aroha. Haere i runga i te rangimarie

Or:

Go now to love and serve the Lord. Go in peace.

Amen. We go in the name of Christ.

Next Sunday

On the 8th November, at 10:00am we will be holding our normal Sunday morning service of Holy Communion with an additional element to mark Remembrance Day near the end of the service.

We understand that due to COVID-19 many people were not able to gather in the usual manner around ANZAC Day so we would like to take the opportunity, as we gather close to Armistice Day, to remember those who serve and have served in our defence forces.

Near the end of the service, close to 11:00am, the Cathedral Choir will lead a choral tribute and there will be an opportunity for solemn remembrance including the playing of The Last Post and Reveille.

The Cathedral Choir will lead the music during the service with Faure's Requiem being used for the music to accompany the liturgy along with well-known traditional hymns for all.

You are invited to join us for tea and coffee served at the back of the Cathedral following the 10.00am service.

Working Bee

We need helpers for Saturday 7th November to give the Cathedral a bit of a spruce up.

If you have a few spare hours to come and help, that would be much appreciated. 9.30 start. If you have any equipment you feel would be of help eg, dusters, cloths, gardening tools, buckets, it would be great if you could bring them too.

Thank you
