

Waiapu Cathedral of St John the Evangelist

ORDER OF SERVICE - 8TH MARCH 2020 -
SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT

Welcome to all who are worshipping here today especially to the family of Samuel James Tregenna who comes to be baptised into the Christian faith.

We seek to be an inclusive congregation: Nau mai, haere mai tatou katoa.

This morning's service follows the Eucharistic Liturgy commencing on page 404 with Holy Baptism after the Reflection, page 384. Congregational responses are in bold type.

8.00am Eucharist (Aotearoa Chapel) Dean Ian Render

10.00am Choral Eucharist & Holy Baptism (Baptism led by Dorothy Brooker)

The congregation remain seated while the choir sing an Introit from the baptistery, then all stand to sing the Processional Hymn (overleaf).

DURING LENT A BELL WILL BE RUNG TO MARK A PRAYERFUL SILENCE BEFORE THE SENTENCE OF THE DAY AND THE INTROIT, TO ENABLE ALL TO PREPARE FOR WORSHIP

Sentence: God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. John 3.16

Presider & Preacher: Dean Ian Render

Liturgist: Jennifer Harris

Director of Music: Anthony Tattersall with the Waiapu Cathedral Choir

Introit: Jesu the very thought of thee– Bairstow

Choral Setting: Palestrina Missa Brevis

Communion Anthem: Civitas Sancti– Byrd

Please ensure all mobile phones are set to silent and not used during worship; and, if necessary, adjust hearing aids to the “Loop” system.

Hymns reproduced with permission under CCLI Licence #504995

IMPORTANT HEALTH NOTICE: Our Diocese has recently directed parishes to refrain from the practice of intinction (dipping the wafer into the wine). For health reasons please co-operate with this requirement. Receiving the bread only is still regarded as a full expression of the sacrament, or you can simply hold or receive the chalice and then pass it back to the person serving. Intinction is less hygienic than the common cup.

Processional Hymn: To Abraham and Sarah

To Abraham and Sarah the call of God was clear:
“Go forth and I will show you a country rich and fair.
You need not fear the journey for I have pledged my word:
that you shall be my people, and I will be your God.”

From Abraham and Sarah arose a pilgrim race, dependent for their journey on God’s abundant grace;
and in their heart was written by God this saving word:
that “you shall be my people, and I will be your God.”

We of this generation on whom God’s hand is laid,
can journey to the future secure and unafraid, rejoicing in God’s goodness and trusting in this word:

Preparation, Kyries (sung), Confession and Absolution

Collect: Let us pray that our lives may be animated by God’s Spirit:

Holy Spirit of God, you blow where you will.
Blow once more through us your chosen people.
Enliven us with your power,
and move us with your strength, that we might be born of the Spirit into eternal life.
With the Father and the Son,
you live and reign,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reading: Genesis 12: 1-4a Robin Gwynn

Psalm 121 (Anglican chant: a version of the text is on p.350)

Epistle reading: Romans 4: 1-5, 13-17 Philip Pridmore

Gospel hymn: Let your heart be broken

Let your heart be broken for a world in need.
Feed the mouths that hunger, soothe the wounds that bleed, give the cup of water and the loaf of bread.
Be the hands of Jesus, serving in his stead.

Here on earth, applying principles of love:
visible expression – God still rules above.
Living illustration of the Living Word to the minds of all who've never seen or heard.

Blest to be a blessing, privileged to care, challenged by the need apparent everywhere,
where the world is wanting, fill the vacant place,
be the way that God reveals abundant grace.

Add to your believing deeds that prove it true.
Knowing Christ as Saviour, growing fruitful, too.
Follow Jesus' pathway, where disciples trod.
In the world's great trouble, risk yourself for God.

Let your heart be tender and your vision clear.
See the world as God sees, serving far and near;
let your heart be broken by another's pain,
share your rich resources, give and give again.

Bryan Jeffery Leach (adapted), Tune: AU CLAIR DE LA LUNE

Gospel Fanfare and Reading: John 3: 1-17 Jennifer Harris

Reflection: Dean Ian Render

Baptism Processional: In the Lord I'll be ever thankful (Taizé) Repeated refrain:

In the Lord, I'll be ever thankful, in the Lord, I will rejoice!
Look to God, do not be afraid. Lift up your voices, the Lord is near.
Lift up your voices, the Lord is near. (refrain repeated several times)

Holy Baptism (pages 384—394)

THE MINISTRY OF THE SACRAMENT

We greet the people near us, saying 'Peace be with you' or 'Kia tau te rangimarie'.

During the next hymn the bread and wine, symbols of Christ's life, are brought to the altar; donations to the Food Bank are presented, and our offerings of money to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral are collected, along with pledges made via electronic banking.

Offertory Hymn: Source and fount of all creation

1. Source and fount of all creation, pour your Spirit from above on the bearers of your image, offspring of a human love.
Human hopes and human graces break beneath the weight of sin;
fear and envy wrench asunder world without and self within.

2. Human love is unavailing counter-weight to sin and strife;
love of God alone can hold us on the way that leads to life.
Praised be God, whose Son, our Saviour, human nature has restored, living, dying, raised in glory,
to the likeness of its Lord.

3. Trace, O Christ, salvation's pattern,
God and sinner reconciled,
in an all-embracing story:
new creation, new-born child.
Word incarnate, world's Redeemer, here in us your work repeat,
signed and sealed your own forever,
till the pattern stands complete.

4. Christ our universal Saviour, nature's poet, nature's priest, through life's troubled waters bring us to the Eucharistic feast, where rejoicing saint and sinner praise the Lord of time and space, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, fount of being, source of grace.

Christians of any tradition and all seeking God are welcome at our Lord's table.

Please advise an usher if you need to have communion served in your seat.

The Ministers of Communion & the Choir are served first, followed by the congregation.

Standing or kneeling are both appropriate postures for receiving Communion

We share notices and news

Recessional hymn: Thanks be to God for the saints

Thanks be to God for the saints of each past generation, one with us still in one body, one great congregation;
with them proclaim
Jesus for ever the same,
Author of life and salvation.

Thanks be to God for the blessings which daily surround us;
glory to Christ the Redeemer who sought us and found us, who from the grave
rose, the almighty to save, breaking the fetters that bound us.

Thanks be to God for the years that are yet in safe-keeping, trusting each day to the care of a Guardian unsleeping,
on to the end,
Christ our companion and friend, joy at the last for our weeping.

Thanks be to God who has called us and daily defends us, who with the Son and the Spirit unchanging befriends us;
now in your Name,
Jesus for ever the same,
forth to your service you send us.

Timothy Dudley-Smith (adapted). Tune: LOBE DEN HERRN

The Dismissal of the Community

Go now to love and serve the Lord. Go in peace.

Haere i runga i te rangimārie i runga i te aroha me te ngākau hihiko ki te mahi ki te Ariki.

Amen. We go in the name of Christ.

Āmine. Ka haere mātou i runga i te ingoa o te Karaiti.

YOU ARE WARMLY INVITED TO STAY FOR MORNING TEA

TODAY at 5.00pm Choral Evensong (1928) in the Cathedral
Note that next month's Evensong will be on Palm Sunday (not Easter Day)

Our shared journey for Lent 2020

As inner-city churches in Napier we are each hosting a 7.00pm service for reflection and penitence during Lent. It would be good for the Cathedral to be well –represented:

11 March: St. Andrew's Anglican Church, Westshore

18 March: Trinity Methodist Church

25 March: St. Thomas More Catholic Church

1 April: St. Paul's Presbyterian Church

TODAY: Please note that the installation of the Rev'd Dr. Lynne Frith as the new minister at Trinity Methodist (at 11.30am) HAS BEEN RELOCATED to St. Patrick's R.C. Church Representation from the Cathedral for this occasion would be welcomed
