CHRISTCHURCH CATHEDRAL

Our prayers today join with Christchurch Cathedral parishioners as they worship together. On Wednesday the Cathedral was deconsecrated.

In her homily, Bishop Victoria acknowledged the prevailing sorrow but focused strongly on the hope of resurrection.

"In homelessness, God's love is still with us," she said. "This is not a time to lose hope.

"We need to move on, knowing that what God has in store for us is more magnificent... We are a work in progress...

"Even as we deconsecrate, as we shed our tears, let us be full of hope because we go forward in the mission of Christ.

"It is the mission that matters... Let us be a pilgrim people – people of the resurrection."

We pray they will feel that hope today.

We are very pleased today to welcome back our former bishop, Bishop John Bluck, who was also dean of Christchurch before coming to Waiapu.

2. help set up on 24th December
3. help on the day itself
4. provide food/provisions for the lunch

6. be on the catering team

Please contact Sally Muir if you can help by calling the dedicated Christmas lunch line at All Saints' Parish, phone 844 2998 extension 9; or send Sally an email to: puddlejumper@xtra.co.nz
